

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY (DHS)

The creation of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) was authorized under the Homeland Security Act of 2002, P.L. 107-296. Under this creation, several assistance programs were transferred from other Federal agencies as well as new programs developed to address the mission of DHS. In order to provide a quick reference to the programs now implemented by the DHS, a “CROSSWALK FOR THE CATALOG OF FEDERAL DOMESTIC ASSISTANCE” (“Crosswalk”) has been provided. It identifies the programs that were transferred to the DHS, programs that were divided with only part of the program transferred to the DHS, programs developed after DHS was created, and programs that were discontinued. The “Crosswalk” will be updated as programs are submitted for revision to the CFDA.
