The TSA Employee Assistance Program (EAP) provides services designed to help employees, managers, and organizations meet life challenges and remain healthy, engaged, and productive.

For employees: Your EAP offers short-term confidential counseling and referral for issues that are affecting your ability to work. The EAP will either address your concerns during counseling sessions, or they will refer you on to appropriate community resources, counselors, and other supports. Issues addressed by the EAP include:

- Life changes – divorce, new job, new baby, aging parents, grief and loss, retirement
- Life challenges – drug and alcohol abuse, depression, eating disorders, mental illness
- Job stress and burnout
- Coping with difficult situations or difficult people

For managers: Your EAP is an ally in fostering a high-performance organization by providing:

- Coaching – how to refer employees to EAP, have difficult performance conversations, handle difficult employees, be a better manager
- Counseling and referral to help you manage your own stress and life challenges
