
From: h.hirchert@att.net
Sent: Thursday, August 05, 2004 10:34 PM
To: ADMIN-S&E
Subject: My comments on Exemptions from NEPA

The American people have the right to make comments on all pending environmental rules. We also have the right to read all input of government agencies relevant to this rulemaking.

The Coast Guard, the Border Patrol, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) must not be exempted from following federal environmental regulations by invoking reasons of national security. National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA).

--

Holly Hirchert
Champaign, Illinois