

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN Southern University at New Orleans AND
THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

In order to create a future generation of employees as diverse as the world around us, this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and Southern University at New Orleans (SUNO) creates the opportunity to expand targeted outreach and recruitment efforts to students and recent graduates for DHS opportunities, including, but not limited to, internships, fellowships, temporary and permanent federal employment. DHS and SUNO may agree to enhance outreach and engagement efforts in other areas without amending this MOU.

II. PARTIES

The parties to this MOU are DHS (both Headquarters and its Components) and the SUNO. Both parties are responsible for the goals and activities contained in this agreement and shall equally contribute to its success.

Through this agreement, SUNO will have insight into recruitment opportunities at DHS for students and recent graduates. DHS will have access to students enrolled in and recent graduates from SUNO.

- A. DHS's mission is to ensure a homeland that is safe, secure, and resilient against terrorism and other hazards. DHS' efforts are supported by an ever-expanding set of partners. Every day, approximately 240,000 men and women of DHS contribute their skills and experiences to this important mission.

More specifically, DHS:

- Protects Americans from terrorism and other homeland security threats by preventing nation-states and their proxies, transnational criminal organizations, and groups or individuals from engaging in terrorist or criminal acts that threaten the Homeland;
- Works with federal, state, local, and tribal partners as well as the private sector and other non-government organizations to prevent terrorism and enhance security;
- Ensures community resilience to disasters across the nation through collaborative training exercises and information sharing activities before, during, and after disaster events;
- Secures and manages U.S. borders by collaborating with federal, state, local, and tribal partners to prevent illegal activity and facilitate lawful travel and trade;
- Safeguards and secures civilian and government cyberspace and coordinates with federal, state, local, and tribal government partners to secure critical infrastructure and information systems;

- Enforces U.S. trade laws and facilitates lawful international trade and travel;
- Enforces and administers U.S. immigration laws; and
- Matures and strengthens DHS using a unified and integrated approach to accountability, efficiency, transparency, and leadership development.

SUNO's mission statement: Southern University at New Orleans, a public, historically black university, empowers and promotes the upward mobility of diverse populations of traditional and nontraditional students through quality academic programs, teaching, research, and service to achieve excellence in higher education using various teaching and learning modalities.

The Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) Pathways Programs - Provides access to Federal internships and careers in Government for students and recent graduates. The Pathways Programs consist of the Internship Program for current students; the Recent Graduates Program for people who have recently graduated from qualifying educational institutions or programs (2 years from the date the graduate completed an academic course of study); and the Presidential Management Fellows (PMF) Program for people who obtained an advanced degree (e.g., graduate or professional degree) within the preceding two years.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

A. DHS Responsibilities

DHS will share resources and information as appropriate and as available staff and resources will allow, and partner with SUNO as follows:

1. DHS will share information with SUNO, leveraging the Pathways Programs during the academic year, and will work to expand the visibility into DHS opportunities for students and recent graduates.
2. DHS will share information with SUNO to increase the pipeline of talent through DHS Component-specific internship programs to students and recent graduates that provide incentives such as scholarships (tuition and fees), monthly salary, housing allowances, and other benefits.
3. DHS will annually develop a series of webinars geared towards students and recent graduates at SUNO to provide valuable information on the DHS mission, current job opportunities, and tips for Federal resume writing and application process.
4. DHS will participate in SUNO recruiting and outreach opportunities, events, and tours including career fairs, on-campus career orientations, and other awareness activities to inform students, faculty, staff, and alumni about DHS employment and student opportunities. This will include exploring opportunities to highlight DHS's mission and student opportunities at SUNO conferences as a sponsor, advertiser, exhibitor, or contributor to presentations to students.
5. DHS will work with SUNO, when invited, to participate in and disseminate information across Headquarters and Components about public policy forums, lectures, presentations, conferences, national level exercises, trainings, and other events at the SUNO.
6. To strengthen the partnership between DHS and Institutions of Higher Education (IHEs), DHS will research and review existing MOUs with IHEs to enhance our collaborative efforts and align with existing best practices.
7. DHS and SUNO will assess return on investment for the Department on outreach and recruitment activities to ensure accountability and prudent stewardship.
8. DHS will work with SUNO, provide information to engage the faculty with professional development opportunities through DHS.
9. DHS will identify subject matter experts from DHS to disseminate information through presentation about varied campaigns to faculty at SUNO.

B. The SUNO Responsibilities

1. SUNO will advise DHS on effective mechanisms for targeting materials and communications to students and recent graduates.
2. SUNO will disseminate DHS materials and communications to students and recent graduates related to DHS mission, current job opportunities, and tips for Federal resume writing and application process.
3. SUNO will partner with DHS in establishing outreach opportunities on campus to increase awareness of the DHS mission and current job opportunities available to students and recent graduates.
4. SUNO, when appropriate, will invite DHS to participate in public policy forums, lectures, presentations, conferences, national level exercises, trainings, and other events at SUNO.

C. Both DHS and SUNO will:

1. Meet or correspond semi-annually to review DHS/SUNO MOU activities and progress.
2. Notify DHS/SUNO MOU Points of Contact (POC) regarding upcoming meetings, status updates, as well as requests related to the terms of the MOU.
3. Track the annual outcomes of DHS/SUNO MOU in a joint report to determine areas of achievement and enhancements.
4. Identify opportunities and programs where professionals from DHS and SUNO can participate in research, capacity-building, training, and exchange programs.

VI. POINTS OF CONTACT
