Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention (TVTP)
NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services in partnership with the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office

Application Track
Replication

Project Type
Threat Assessment and Management Team

Project Name
Replication of the Successful Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) Model across Upstate New York

Application Request Amount
$164,850

Project Abstract
The NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES) in partnership with the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office (MCSO), is requesting FY2020 Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention (TVTP) funds to support the continued development of the Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) model, both within the Rochester area and across upstate New York.

ROCTAC is a Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) advisory team created to close threat management gaps created by systems siloes and fragmented responses. It provides a central point of information coordination, led by the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office. The ROCTAC includes the Monroe County District Attorney’s Office, U.S. Attorney’s Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Secret Service, New York State Police, Fairport Police Department, Roberts Wesleyan College, University of Rochester, Fairport Central School District, Villa of Hope, Willow Domestic Violence Center, Veterans Outreach Center, and a host of law enforcement agencies, school districts, colleges and universities, human resources and mental health professionals, houses of worship, and community outreach partners.

ROCTAC acts as a central clearinghouse for information flow specific to situations known as Threat Cases (TC). Threat Cases are defined as situations, above normal occurrences, where the risk of violence is assessed to be imminent and/or a cluster of risk factors and warning behaviors are present, commonly associated with elevated risks for targeted violence. The ROCTAC was launched in early 2019 and has addressed 16 TCs through April 30, 2020. FY2020 TVTP funds will be used to advance the ROTAC program and to educate and train other areas of upstate New York to adapt this model and create regional TAM teams in their areas.
Needs Assessment (1)
The development of the ROCTAC was based on a formal needs assessment conducted by Roberts Wesleyan College’s Justice and Security Institute (JSI). The “Threat Assessment and Management Project (TAMP) Summary Report” was the culmination of efforts facilitated by JSI over 17 months to understand threat assessment strategies and systems currently in use by stakeholders across multiple sectors in Monroe County.

The needs assessment included six key findings that informed the development of the ROCTAC:

1. Threat Assessment was Generally Limited to School Environments: Formalized threat assessment systems and threat response protocols existed in Monroe County but were commonly located in disparate K-12 school districts and institutes of higher education.

2. Focus on Ad Hoc Structures to Address Issues: Stakeholders in Monroe County lacked the benefit of a formalized countywide TAM team to coordinate identification, assessment, management, and intervention strategies. Ad-hoc and informal strategies depended on organizations or individuals within organizations, to organize threat response and intervention, but they lacked case management capabilities.

3. Fragmented Case Management: The state of adult threat assessment and case management across sectors was fragmented. This impacted efforts to identify and provide support to individuals at risk for committing acts of targeted violence – who are often not as easily identifiable as those who are experiencing a mental health crisis.

4. Reliance on the Monroe County Office of Mental Health: The greater Rochester public safety community’s response strategies often relied on preexisting programs and services provided or supported by the Monroe County Office of Mental Health. These programs and services were not specifically designed to address systemic threat mitigation and cross-disciplinary case management.

5. Public Safety Agencies Focused on Response to Targeted Violence: Most targeted violence response training in the region’s public safety community centered on active shooter response strategies and critical incident management. Monroe County lacked training in prevention-based assessment models designed to identify cases with elevated or accelerating risk factors.

6. Lack of Consensus – but Interest: Research pointed to a lack of consensus regarding the viability of a formalized countywide adult TAM team. There was interest in this concept, but not complete confidence that it could be implemented on a countywide basis.

Based on these findings, the ROCTAC was begun in early 2019. It’s services are available to individuals in crisis across Monroe County. Through April 30, 2020, it has been presented with 16 cases and has reviewed 16 cases that have already shown proven results, including the manner(s) in which the presenting agencies have gained new information for their cases and options to help resolve situations.

1 Roberts Wesleyan College Justice and Security Institute: “Threat Assessment and Management Project (TAMP) Summary Report” 2017
In three specific cases, ROCTAC discussed individuals who had exhibited public anti-social behavior with a high probability of violence. In those cases, plans were made in which the District Attorney’s Office would solicit his/her participation in being assessed for Mental Health Court regarding the individual’s previously existing charges. In these cases, domestic violence agencies were made available to provide services to the individual’s spouse or loved one(s) in the event a referral is made, along with the Monroe County Office of Mental Health (OMH). ROCTAC also contacted the school district that the individual’s children attended to alert them of risk factors affecting the children and potentially serve as tripwire indicators, should any tripwire indicators be observed. The result: several lines of direct communication were made in the process of providing at least four avenues of intervention in which each resource was aware of the others involvement.

Building on the ROCTAC model, DHSES is working to build TAM teams across upstate New York. This effort will focus on the three other upstate urban areas (in addition to Rochester) that were part of New York State’s Complex Coordinated Terrorist Attack (CCTA) program: The Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and Capital District regions. During the CCTA Capstone Exercise in October 2019, Sheriff Todd Baxter (from Monroe County) presented on the ROCTAC effort at the Command Portion of the event. This presentation sparked significant interest from Command participants from the other upstate urban areas about replicating this program in their respective regions. DHSES engaged these regions further as part of the development of this application for TVTP funds and their interest was confirmed.

Program Design (2)
Problem Statement (2A)

This FY2020 TVTP proposal seeks to address two primary challenges in New York State:

1. Sustainment and Advancement of the ROCTAC Program: The ROCTAC was created based on extensive research, leadership from the MCSO, and buy-in from the extensive group of ROCTAC’s Participating Member Agencies (PMAs). The program has proven extremely successful in its infancy, but it is now time for ROCTAC’s efforts to advance. Funding is needed to support this effort. New York State is requesting FY2020 TVTP funds for MCSO to hire a Program Manager to guide ROCTAC’s efforts on behalf of the region. Additionally, MCSO will utilize funds to create a public facing website and promotional materials to share information, resources, and success stories with the broader community.

2. Development of Threat Assessment Teams in Other Upstate Urban Areas: Currently, there is interest from the other three upstate regions (Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and the Capital Region) in implementing ROCTAC-like programs in their areas, however, these regions lack the expertise and experience developed in the Rochester-Monroe area. To address this challenge, DHSES is requesting FY2020 TVTP funds to conduct training and workshops for these three urban areas to prepare them to successfully develop, implement, and maintain their own TAM teams.
Program Goals and Objectives (2B)
The overarching goal of New York State’s FY2020 TVTP request is to:

- Develop prevention frameworks across upstate New York to enhance the capabilities of the “whole community” to identify and respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence.

The specific objectives that support this overarching goal include:

- Hire a new Program Manager at MCSO to guide the ROCTAC
- Develop a website and promotional materials for the ROCTAC to socialize the program, its services, and success stories to the broader community
- Host an initial workshop in each of the three other upstate urban areas (Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, Capital District) to further educate key officials on threat assessment fundamentals and to begin work on drafting unique strategies for each region’s Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) team
- Conduct a secondary workshop in each of the three upstate urban areas to follow-up on the initial workshop and to continue making progress towards TAM team implementation
- Develop a training course on TAM team fundamentals and implementation that can be delivered at the State Preparedness Training Center (SPTC). The course will be designed for other regions of the State interested in building out this concept.

All objectives will be completed within the performance period of this grant program.

The performance measures for this proposal include:

Overarching Measures
- The successful maintenance and advancement of the ROCTAC.
- The successful development of TAM teams in the Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and Capital Region areas.
- The development of a TAM team course at the SPTC.
  - The number of deliveries, students trained, and contact hours will be tracked.

Specific Measures for each TAM Team
- Number of cases opened
- Number of referrals for outside services by service type
- Anonymized case status data referred to law enforcement
- Anonymized case studies illustrating the impact of threat management

This project goal is based on – and directly aligns to – the Department of Homeland Security’s 2019 Strategic Framework\(^2\):

- Goal 3: Prevent Terrorism and Targeted Violence

• Objective 3.3: Develop local prevention frameworks that enhance the ability of state, local, tribal, and territorial (SLTT) partners to identify and respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence”

This goal also directly aligns to the 2017-2020 NYS Homeland Security Strategy³:

• Goal 1: Strengthen Intelligence and Information-Sharing Capabilities
• Objective 1.4: Expand outreach efforts and knowledge share beyond traditional law enforcement and intelligence communities to include first responders (including the fire service and emergency managers) and the private sector

Logic Model (2C)

Inputs to Date with ROCTAC
- Strong leadership and buy-in
- Extensive stakeholder outreach
- MOUs from Participating Member Agencies (PMAs)
- Joint PMA Training
- Community Outreach (Media)
- TIME and COMMITMENT from PMA representatives

Outputs
- # of TAM Teams developed
- # of TAM-related cases, referrals, & case status details (by TAM Team)
- # of TAM courses offered, # of students trained, & # of contact hours

Activities
- Hire one Program Manager at MCSO to guide ROCTAC efforts
- Hire consultant support to develop a ROCTAC website & promotional materials
- Conduct initial & secondary TAM Workshops in Buffalo, Syracuse, and the Capital District
- Develop & deliver TAM training course at the SPTC

Short and Long Term Outcomes
- Increased ROCTAC Capacity with Program Manager
- Increased Awareness of ROCTAC in the Rochester-Monroe region
- Implementation of TAM Teams in 3 other upstate New York regions
- Increased training on TAM Team methodologies statewide

Long-Term Outcome (End-State Goal)
- Develop prevention frameworks across upstate New York to enhance the capabilities of the “whole community” to identify & respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence.

Organizational Design and Key Personnel (3)

This project will be managed by DHSES in close coordination with the MCSO. DHSES serves as the State Administrative Agency (SAA) for grant funding provided by the federal Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to New York State. DHSES has a large Grants Program Administration (GPA) unit that effectively manages over $1 billion in federal homeland security funds provided through DHS.

Within DHSES, this program will be managed through a partnership of staff from GPA, the Office of Counter Terrorism (OCT), and the SPTC. This collaborative approach mirrors the partnership utilized by DHSES to oversee the State’s CCTA Program; this ensures that funding, intelligence, and training professionals are partnered together to provide the best possible programmatic leadership and support. The key stakeholders will include a Program Manager from GPA (Nicole Erickson), the Law Enforcement Coordinator from OCT (James Turley), and an Intelligence Analyst with the SPTC (Meghan Dudley); resumes are included as appendices for this application.

DHSES will leverage FY2020 TVTP funds to conduct initial and secondary workshops in each of the three upstate urban areas that are building TAM teams, based on the ROCTAC model. DHSES will also utilize funding to develop a training course that can be delivered at the SPTC. The SPTC trains first responders and public safety officials from across the State. This course will serve as a “force multiplier” for the dedicated efforts in upstate urban areas.

DHSES will sub-allocate a portion of FY2020 TVTP funds to the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office. The Sheriff’s Office will be responsible for contracting with a consultant to be the ROCTAC Program Manager and for hiring a consultant to develop and maintain the ROCTAC website. The Program Manager will be the central point of information coordination for the threat assessment and management advisory team in Monroe County.

In addition to the consultant that will be hired, key personnel from the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office include: Captain John Kennedy and Jennifer Curley; resumes are included as appendices in this application. Captain John Kennedy will oversee the Sheriff’s overall ROCTAC program as it relates to the FY2020 TVTP grant. He will oversee the Request for Quotes process for hiring the Program Manager and the consultant for website. Ms. Jennifer Curley, Senior Police Planning Specialist will administer and manage the grant and ensure compliance. She will coordinate and submit all fiscal and program reports as well as manage the grant in the county financial system.

Sustainability (4)

DHSES and the MCSO will develop an aggressive strategy to sustain the capabilities developed through the FY2020 TVTP. This includes:

- Identifying New Federal Funding Sources: First, alternative sources of federal funding will be sought moving forward in order to sustain these capabilities. For example, the Department of Justice (DOJ) has a grant program called Students, Teachers, and Officers Preventing (STOP) Grant Program. This program, while focused largely on the school environment, addresses key concepts of TAM teams and community-wide approaches to preventing violence.

- Leveraging Existing Federal Funding Sources: If alternative federal funding sources are not available, DHSES and the MCSO will seek to leverage existing federal grant programs to maintain program successes. Both DHSES and the Sheriff’s Office receive State Homeland Security Program (SHSP) funding through DHS.

- Utilizing State/Local Budget Funds: If no other federal funding sources are available, DHSES and the Sheriff’s Office will seek to utilize State and Local funding, respectively, to support TAM programs. While State and Local budgets are tight, particularly in the COVID-19 environment, efforts will be made to fully sustain capabilities developed under the FY2020 TVTP. These programs are inherently more time and leadership intensive (not resource intensive); a relatively small amount of funding makes a big difference.

Project Abstract
The NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES) in partnership with the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office (MCSO), is requesting FY2020 Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention (TVTP) funds to support the continued development of the Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) model, both within the Rochester area and across upstate New York.

ROCTAC is a Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) advisory team created to close threat management gaps created by systems siloes and fragmented responses. It provides a central point of information coordination, led by the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office. The ROCTAC includes the Monroe County District Attorney’s Office, U.S. Attorney’s Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Secret Service, New York State Police, Fairport Police Department, Roberts Wesleyan College, University of Rochester, Fairport Central School District, Villa of Hope, Willow Domestic Violence Center, Veterans Outreach Center, and a host of law enforcement agencies, school districts, colleges and universities, human resources and mental health professionals, houses of worship, and community outreach partners.

ROCTAC acts as a central clearinghouse for information flow specific to situations known as Threat Cases (TC). Threat Cases are defined as situations, above normal occurrences, where the risk of violence is assessed to be imminent and/or a cluster of risk factors and warning behaviors are present, commonly associated with elevated risks for targeted violence. The ROCTAC was launched in early 2019 and has addressed 16 TCs through April 30, 2020. FY2020 TVTP funds will be used to advance the ROTAC program and to educate and train other areas of upstate New York to adapt this model and create regional TAM teams in their areas.
Needs Assessment (1)

The development of the ROCTAC was based on a formal needs assessment conducted by Roberts Wesleyan College’s Justice and Security Institute (JSI). The “Threat Assessment and Management Project (TAMP) Summary Report” was the culmination of efforts facilitated by JSI over 17 months to understand threat assessment strategies and systems currently in use by stakeholders across multiple sectors in Monroe County. The needs assessment included six key findings that informed the development of the ROCTAC:

1. Threat Assessment was Generally Limited to School Environments: Formalized threat assessment systems and threat response protocols existed in Monroe County but were commonly located in disparate K-12 school districts and institutes of higher education.

2. Focus on Ad Hoc Structures to Address Issues: Stakeholders in Monroe County lacked the benefit of a formalized countywide TAM team to coordinate identification, assessment, management, and intervention strategies. Ad-hoc and informal strategies depended on organizations or individuals within organizations, to organize threat response and intervention, but they lacked case management capabilities.

3. Fragmented Case Management: The state of adult threat assessment and case management across sectors was fragmented. This impacted efforts to identify and provide support to individuals at risk for committing acts of targeted violence – who are often not as easily identifiable as those who are experiencing a mental health crisis.

4. Reliance on the Monroe County Office of Mental Health: The greater Rochester public safety community’s response strategies often relied on preexisting programs and services provided or supported by the Monroe County Office of Mental Health. These programs and services were not specifically designed to address systemic threat mitigation and cross-disciplinary case management.

5. Public Safety Agencies Focused on Response to Targeted Violence: Most targeted violence response training in the region’s public safety community centered on active shooter response strategies and critical incident management. Monroe County lacked training in prevention-based assessment models designed to identify cases with elevated or accelerating risk factors.

6. Lack of Consensus – but Interest: Research pointed to a lack of consensus regarding the viability of a formalized countywide adult TAM team. There was interest in this concept, but not complete confidence that it could be implemented on a countywide basis.

Based on these findings, the ROCTAC was begun in early 2019. Its services are available to individuals in crisis across Monroe County. Through April 30, 2020, it has been presented with 16 cases and has reviewed 16 cases that have already shown proven results, including the manner(s) in which the presenting agencies have gained new information for their cases and options to help resolve situations.

1 Roberts Wesleyan College Justice and Security Institute: “Threat Assessment and Management Project (TAMP) Summary Report” 2017
In three specific cases, ROCTAC discussed individuals who had exhibited public anti-social behavior with a high probability of violence. In those cases, plans were made in which the District Attorney’s Office would solicit his/her participation in being assessed for Mental Health Court regarding the individual’s previously existing charges. In these cases, domestic violence agencies were made available to provide services to the individual’s spouse or loved one(s) in the event a referral is made, along with the Monroe County Office of Mental Health (OMH). ROCTAC also contacted the school district that the individual’s children attended to alert them of risk factors affecting the children and potentially serve as tripwire indicators, should any tripwire indicators be observed. The result: several lines of direct communication were made in the process of providing at least four avenues of intervention in which each resource was aware of the others involvement.

Building on the ROCTAC model, DHSES is working to build TAM teams across upstate New York. This effort will focus on the three other upstate urban areas (in addition to Rochester) that were part of New York State’s Complex Coordinated Terrorist Attack (CCTA) program: The Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and Capital District regions. During the CCTA Capstone Exercise in October 2019, Sheriff Todd Baxter (from Monroe County) presented on the ROCTAC effort at the Command Portion of the event. This presentation sparked significant interest from Command participants from the other upstate urban areas about replicating this program in their respective regions. DHSES engaged these regions further as part of the development of this application for TVTP funds and their interest was confirmed.

Program Design (2)

Problem Statement (2A)

This FY2020 TVTP proposal seeks to address two primary challenges in New York State:

1. Sustainment and Advancement of the ROCTAC Program: The ROCTAC was created based on extensive research, leadership from the MCSO, and buy-in from the extensive group of ROCTAC’s Participating Member Agencies (PMAs). The program has proven extremely successful in its infancy, but it is now time for ROCTAC’s efforts to advance. Funding is needed to support this effort. New York State is requesting FY2020 TVTP funds for MCSO to hire a Program Manager to guide ROCTAC’s efforts on behalf of the region. Additionally, MCSO will utilize funds to create a public facing website and promotional materials to share information, resources, and success stories with the broader community.

2. Development of Threat Assessment Teams in Other Upstate Urban Areas: Currently, there is interest from the other three upstate regions (Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and the Capital Region) in implementing ROCTAC-like programs in their areas, however, these regions lack the expertise and experience developed in the Rochester-Monroe area. To address this challenge, DHSES is requesting FY2020 TVTP funds to conduct training and workshops for these three urban areas to prepare them to successfully develop, implement, and maintain their own TAM teams.
Program Goals and Objectives (2B)

The overarching goal of New York State’s FY2020 TVTP request is to:

- Develop prevention frameworks across upstate New York to enhance the capabilities of the “whole community” to identify and respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence.

The specific objectives that support this overarching goal include:

- Hire a new Program Manager at MCSO to guide the ROCTAC
- Develop a website and promotional materials for the ROCTAC to socialize the program, its services, and success stories to the broader community
- Host an initial workshop in each of the three other upstate urban areas (Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, Capital District) to further educate key officials on threat assessment fundamentals and to begin work on drafting unique strategies for each region’s Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) team
- Conduct a secondary workshop in each of the three upstate urban areas to follow-up on the initial workshop and to continue making progress towards TAM team implementation
- Develop a training course on TAM team fundamentals and implementation that can be delivered at the State Preparedness Training Center (SPTC). The course will be designed for other regions of the State interested in building out this concept.

All objectives will be completed within the performance period of this grant program.

The performance measures for this proposal include:

Overarching Measures

- The successful maintenance and advancement of the ROCTAC.
- The successful development of TAM teams in the Buffalo-Erie-Niagara, Syracuse-Onondaga, and Capital Region areas.
- The development of a TAM team course at the SPTC.
  - The number of deliveries, students trained, and contact hours will be tracked.

Specific Measures for each TAM Team

- Number of cases opened
- Number of referrals for outside services by service type
- Anonymized case status data referred to law enforcement
- Anonymized case studies illustrating the impact of threat management

This project goal is based on – and directly aligns to – the Department of Homeland Security’s 2019 Strategic Framework:\(^2\):

- Goal 3: Prevent Terrorism and Targeted Violence

• Objective 3.3: Develop local prevention frameworks that enhance the ability of state, local, tribal, and territorial (SLTT) partners to identify and respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence

This goal also directly aligns to the 2017-2020 NYS Homeland Security Strategy:
• Goal 1: Strengthen Intelligence and Information-Sharing Capabilities
• Objective 1.4: Expand outreach efforts and knowledge share beyond traditional law enforcement and intelligence communities to include first responders (including the fire service and emergency managers) and the private sector

Logic Model (2C)

Organizational Design and Key Personnel (3)
This project will be managed by DHSES in close coordination with the MCSO. DHSES serves as the State Administrative Agency (SAA) for grant funding provided by the federal Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to New York State. DHSES has a large Grants Program Administration (GPA) unit that effectively manages over $1 billion in federal homeland security funds provided through DHS.

Within DHSES, this program will be managed through a partnership of staff from GPA, the Office of Counter Terrorism (OCT), and the SPTC. This collaborative approach mirrors the partnership utilized by DHSES to oversee the State’s CCTA Program; this ensures that funding, intelligence, and training professionals are partnered together to provide the best possible programmatic leadership and support. The key stakeholders will include a Program Manager from GPA (Nicole Erickson), the Law Enforcement Coordinator from OCT (James Turley), and an Intelligence Analyst with the SPTC (Meghan Dudley); resumes are included as appendices for this application.

DHSES will leverage FY2020 TVTP funds to conduct initial and secondary workshops in each of the three upstate urban areas that are building TAM teams, based on the ROCTAC model. DHSES will also utilize funding to develop a training course that can be delivered at the SPTC. The SPTC trains first responders and public safety officials from across the State. This course will serve as a “force multiplier” for the dedicated efforts in upstate urban areas.

DHSES will sub-allocate a portion of FY2020 TVTP funds to the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office. The Sheriff’s Office will be responsible for contracting with a consultant to be the ROCTAC Program Manager and for hiring a consultant to develop and maintain the ROCTAC website. The Program Manager will be the central point of information coordination for the threat assessment and management advisory team in Monroe County.

In addition to the consultant that will be hired, key personnel from the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office include: Captain John Kennedy and Jennifer Curley; resumes are included as appendices in this application. Captain John Kennedy will oversee the Sheriff’s overall ROCTAC program as it relates to the FY2020 TVTP grant. He will oversee the Request for Quotes process for hiring the Program Manager and the consultant for website. Ms. Jennifer Curley, Senior Police Planning Specialist will administer and manage the grant and ensure compliance. She will coordinate and submit all fiscal and program reports as well as manage the grant in the county financial system.

Sustainability (4)

DHSES and the MCSO will develop an aggressive strategy to sustain the capabilities developed through the FY2020 TVTP. This includes:

- Identifying New Federal Funding Sources: First, alternative sources of federal funding will be sought moving forward in order to sustain these capabilities. For example, the Department of Justice (DOJ) has a grant program called Students, Teachers, and Officers Preventing (STOP) Grant Program. This program, while focused largely on the school environment, addresses key concepts of TAM teams and community-wide approaches to preventing violence.

- Leveraging Existing Federal Funding Sources: If alternative federal funding sources are not available, DHSES and the MCSO will seek to leverage existing federal grant programs to maintain program successes. Both DHSES and the Sheriff’s Office receive State Homeland Security Program (SHSP) funding through DHS.

- Utilizing State/Local Budget Funds: If no other federal funding sources are available, DHSES and the Sheriff’s Office will seek to utilize State and Local funding, respectively, to support TAM programs. While State and Local budgets are tight, particularly in the COVID-19 environment, efforts will be made to fully sustain capabilities developed under the FY2020 TVTP. These programs are inherently more time and leadership intensive (not resource intensive); a relatively small amount of funding makes a big difference.

You should modify the Implementation & Measurement Plan (IMP) template to the number of outcomes your specific project requires. For each outcome in the IMP, create an Implementation Plan table and a Measurement Plan table. Please use the definitions provided in the IMP guidance document when crafting your plan. Draft, in the box below, the overarching goal statement for the project. Following completion of the IMP, each grantee is expected to complete the Risk Assessment & Mitigation Plan in Appendix A.

In the Implementation Plan table:
- Type each activity in a separate row; add as many rows as needed.
- Arrange activity rows chronologically by the start date of the activity.
- This IMP should span both years of performance under this grant program.

In the Measurement Plan table:
- Type each outcome indicator in a separate row.
- Include indicators that will help measure the results of the project; it is not necessary to have more than one indicator if that indicator sufficiently measures results.
- Identify and/or design data collection methods to be used to obtain the data that will be reported on quarterly.
- Ensure attention to collection of data that can be broken down by sex and age of project participants or beneficiaries.

NOTE: Data collection methods should be specific and timebound. Any expenses incurred from the collection of data must come from the grant already awarded. No additional funds will be made available by DHS for this purpose.

Project Goal Statement

Develop prevention frameworks across upstate New York to enhance the capabilities of the “whole community” to identify and respond to individuals at risk of mobilizing to violence.

Target Population

The ROCTAC program currently serves the entirety of Monroe County, which has a population of 741,770*. When Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) teams are successfully implemented in Buffalo (Erie County), Syracuse (Onondaga County), and Albany (Albany County), an additional 1,684,736* New Yorkers will have the opportunity for support through a TAM Team. In total, over 1.4 million New Yorkers will have access to TAM Team support by the end of the grant performance period.

Note: All population figures are based on 2019 census estimates.
OUTCOME 1: The successful maintenance and advancement of the ROCTAC.

Mid-Term Outcome 1.1: Hire a Program Manager at MCSO to oversee the ROCTAC.
Mid-Term Outcome 1.2: Hire a consultant to develop a website and create promotional materials for the ROCTAC.

<td>The successful ROCTAC model in Rochester is not able to be replicated in one (or more) of the other three upstate regions.</td>
<td>Medium</td>
<td>The foundational assumption of this project is that the successful ROCTAC model can be replicated in other areas. The ROCTAC model required strong leadership, “whole community” partnerships, and buy-in from the broader public community. If any of these factors are absent in the other upstate regions, then their ability to implement successful TAM Teams could be hindered.</td>
<td>This project risk can be mitigated through consistent engagement with senior leadership in the three upstate regions that will implement new TAM Teams. DHSES will host monthly conference calls with the regions, in coordination with MCSO, to support this process. Strong senior leadership and commitment is the key that will bring together the “whole community” and will help to ensure community buy-in.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Police relationships with the communities they serve can be challenging and can change over time. There may initially not be community “buy in” for TAM Teams in the three other upstate regions.</td>
<td>Low to Medium</td>
<td>If the broader community does not buy into the concept and use of TAM Teams, then the number of cases referred to their region’s respective TAM Team could be limited.</td>
<td>This risk can be mitigated through effective public engagement, utilizing the media as a tool to share this message. The importance of TAM Teams can be highlighted, along with information on their processes and protection measures can be shared. This proactive outreach strategy will help increase public comfort with how TAM Teams operate and how they have been successful.</td>

RE: FY2020 Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention Grant

To Whom it May Concern:

The Irondequoit Police Department fully supports the efforts of the New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services grant application for the Targeted Violence Terrorism Prevention Program.

Our agency has been a part of the Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) since inception. Our agency will continue to assist the ROCTAC and provide balanced intervention and case management strategies to cases presented in order to mitigate, resolve, and improve targeted violence threat response. The Irondequoit Police Department has been and will continue to be invested with the process of ROCTAC. We will promote this process amongst law enforcement agencies.

Our agency will also provide any additional support that may be requested by NYS DHSES and ROCTAC partners.

If there are any questions or need for additional information from the Irondequoit Police Department I can be reached by phone at (b)(6) or via email at (b)(6).

Sincerely,

To Whom it May Concern:

On behalf of Commissioner Patrick A. Murphy, of the New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES), it is my distinct pleasure to offer our application for FY2020 Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention (TVTP) funds to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

DHSES is proud to partner with the Monroe County Sheriff’s Office in this effort. Our joint project — "Replication of the Successful Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) Model across Upstate New York" — will greatly enhance the State’s overarching counterterrorism efforts. DHSES has supported the ROCTAC since its inception and we believe that the Rochester area’s successful model can be replicated in other urban areas across upstate New York.

This proposal is an extension of our continuing efforts under the DHS Complex Coordinated Terrorist Attack (CCTA) program, which focused on prevention and response efforts in four upstate urban areas (Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, and Syracuse).

The importance of Threat Assessment and Management (TAM) team development is critically important, given the current threat environment. This low-cost, high-impact project has the potential to become a model for communities nationwide.

If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact me at __________. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Dear U.S Department of Homeland Security Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention Grant Review Team:

As the Sheriff of Monroe County, I fully support the New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (NYS DHSES) partnership application for the FY20 Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention. In September of 2018, The Monroe County Sheriff’s Office formed the Rochester Threat Advisory Committee (ROCTAC) and has led the homegrown threat assessment committee with 24 participating member agencies. ROCTAC has served as a resource for the community since 2019, in an effort to improve targeted violence threat response protocols by providing multi-disciplinary expert advice and seamless sharing of information across systems. The committee balances the safety needs of the public with the health and wellness needs of at risk individual(s) in hopes of creating restorative measures. The hope and expectation of ROCTAC is to share the concept statewide with other regions and law enforcement agencies. This partnership with NYS DHSES will further our goal to develop similar committees across New York and to enhance the capabilities of the “whole community” to identify and respond to individuals at risk of violence.

The ROCTAC serves as a leader in New York State and the program is evolving and funds are needed to advertise and provide a central point of information coordination for the threat assessment and advisory members in Monroe County. The Sheriff’s Office will also assist in the training and coordination with NYS DHSES with the threat assessment and management expansion to other regions within the state.

The Monroe County Sheriff’s Office is excited about this endeavor and if funding is received, we look forward to working with U.S Department of Homeland Security and the New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services.

Dear Sheriff Baxter:

Monroe County Office of Mental Health (MCOMH) is in support of the grant application for the Targeted Violence Terrorism Prevention Program submitted by the Monroe County Sheriff, to the New York State Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES).
