

FEDERAL PROTECTIVE SERVICE

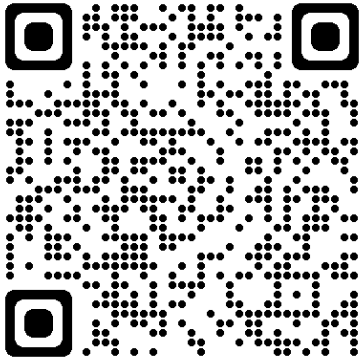

FPS

Begin Your Career at the Federal Protective Service!

Help protect the United States by using critical skills to support a premiere federal law enforcement agency! FPS offers permanent, full-time federal mission support positions throughout the United States and is actively seeking exceptional candidates to join our mission and fill key roles, including:

- Budget Analysts
- Contract Management Analyst (COR)

Why FPS?

The Federal Protective Service (FPS) is the Department of Homeland Security's premiere federal law enforcement agency responsible for safeguarding the millions of federal employees, contractors, and visitors who pass through federal facilities across the United States and its territories every day. FPS envisions a federal workforce and workplace that is safe, secure, and resilient across the homeland against acts of violence and other hazards.

FPS offers competitive benefits as well as family friendly programs, including telework.

What does an FPS Budget Analyst do?

- Plan, organize, and carry out a major, substantive budget
- Develop, recommend, and implement budgetary policies affecting the financing of major national programs
- Ensure the effective integration of program and budget planning
- Review revenue and reimbursable work

What does an FPS Contract Management Analyst do?

- Develops and coordinates the completion of contract-related Management Decision Documents
- Serves as the contract subject matter expert on various programs to Project Managers as well as mid- and senior-level management

How to Apply

1. Click "Apply Online" and follow instructions in the "How to Apply" on the section of the job opportunity announcement.
2. Create a USA Jobs member account.
3. Submit all required documents.

Need Application Help?

Visit <https://www.usajobs.gov/Help>.

Contact Us

Questions? Connect with an FPS representative by emailing us at careers@fps.dhs.gov