Thanks Kevin. Since you all are still working up the numbers, I think it will work best to chat at the end of the day.

For our meeting with the Director we'll make clear that we will be coordinating with you and DHS as the way forward develops.

- Construction of the Border Wall is a Presidential priority and time is of the essence

I spoke with (b) (6) about this and am attaching documents that relate to a deadline for inclusion of Buy American provision in border wall bids.

My office has been working a number of months now on this but we are at an impasse and a decision needs to be made forthwith.

I am requesting an emergency meeting tomorrow morning at StaffSec's office at 10 a.m. or 11 a.m. with representatives from CBP, USTR, DPC, OTMP, and WHLC.

Thanks for your consideration.

As you requested, here are some highlights about the importance of a quick decision on the waiver

- Construction of the Border Wall is a Presidential priority and time is of the essence
- To the maximum extent, we want walls to be constructed with American materials (concrete and steel)
- We are issuing request for bids for the next segments of wall construction on or about August 31

(b) (5)

For your information, I have pasted a more detailed narrative from (b) (6) as additional detail and background:

Current status: The U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) has yet to act to reinstate the Buy American Act (BAA) for Government construction projects, such as the border wall, that exceed $7.3 million in value. As such, the Trade Agreements Act (TAA) currently governs any Government procurement for construction services valued above that threshold.

CBP, through its partners at USACE, is nearly ready to issue Requests for Proposals (RFP) for the four FY17 fence replacement projects, each of which is likely to exceed $7.3 million in value. (b) (5)

Peter,

I want to take this opportunity to update you on the recent efforts undertaken by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) with respect to the application of the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act of 2015 (TFTEA), specifically, the Enforce and Protect Act (EAPA) and the President's Executive Order on Trade Enforcement. EAPA outlined a process for the American industry to identify potential instances where goods have been imported into the United States through evasion of antidumping and countervailing duty orders. Working together with American industry on our initial cases has produced immediate results.

Specifically, the Thailand and Malaysian wire hanger investigations outlined in our recent press release, which you can access via the included link below, highlight how CBP is partnering with the sole American wire hanger manufacturer to protect American jobs from this transshipment evasion. Bloomberg and others have already picked up the good news.

This is not the only group of investigations we have underway, but it represents the first completed investigation and has led to the American manufacturer filing eight more allegations of transshipment evasion that we are investigating and have enacted interim measures upon. This partnership prevents the further evasion of over $33 million in antidumping duties and will allow the American company to reinvest its resources to expand production in the United States.

I would like to highlight that it has been critical to our initial success to be able to (b) (7)(E) (b) (7)(E) of production or in these recent cases, lack of production capability. That said, TFTEA legislation was an authorization without explicit appropriation, unless the trade enforcement trust funds are considered available, and as a result, in order to continue such enforcement efforts, CBP continues to look for solutions to grow our investigative capability. (b) (5), (b) (7)(E)

(b) (5), (b) (7)(E) Thank you for your continued interest and support on this very important issue.

Thank you,

Kevin

Please let (b) (6), copied here, know if you—or a proxy—can attend a meeting tomorrow on this topic in the Staff Secretary's office at either 10 or 11 am. We can set up a dial-in for those who may be traveling.

As I understand it, there are several issues that would need to be resolved on a quick time frame to move forward, some of which would likely require Presidential involvement. Therefore, if we can convene a meeting, I would propose to organize the discussion around these 6 questions:

- 1.

We can set up a dial-in for those who may be traveling.

As I understand it, there are several issues that would need to be resolved on a quick time frame to move forward, some of which would likely require Presidential involvement. Therefore, if we can convene a meeting, I would propose to organize the discussion around these 6 questions:

- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Given possible budgetary implications of any decision, I've added OMB to this chain.

Thanks,

Subject: Request for Emergency Meeting in Staff Sec's office tomorrow at 10 a.m. or 11 a.m. to resolve border wall issue

(b) (6)

I spoke with (b) (6) about this and am attaching documents that relate to a deadline for inclusion of Buy American provision in border wall bids.

My office has been working a number of months now on this but we are at an impasse and a decision needs to be made forthwith.

I am requesting an emergency meeting tomorrow morning at StaffSec's office at 10 a.m. or 11 a.m. with representatives from CBP, USTR, DPC, OTMP, and WHLC.

Thanks for your consideration.
