

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN UNIVERSITY OF OREGON AND THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

In order to create a future generation of employees as diverse as the world around us, this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and University of Oregon creates the opportunity to expand outreach and recruitment to students and recent graduates for DHS opportunities, including, but not limited to, internships, fellowships, temporary assignments, academic programs and permanent federal employment. DHS and the University of Oregon may agree to enhance outreach and engagement efforts in other areas within the homeland security mission without amending this MOU.

II. PARTIES

The parties to this MOU are DHS (both Headquarters and its Components) and University of Oregon. Both parties are responsible for the goals and activities contained in this agreement and shall equally contribute to its success.

Through this agreement, the University of Oregon will have insight into recruitment opportunities at DHS for students and recent graduates. DHS will have access to students enrolled in and recent graduates from University of Oregon.

- A. DHS's mission is to ensure a homeland that is safe, secure, and resilient against terrorism and other hazards. DHS' efforts are supported by an ever-expanding set of partners. Every day, approximately 240,000 men and women of DHS contribute their skills and experiences to this important mission.

More specifically, DHS:

- Protects Americans from terrorism and other homeland security threats by preventing nation-states and their proxies, transnational criminal organizations, and groups or individuals from engaging in terrorist or criminal acts that threaten the Homeland;
- Works with federal, state, local, and tribal partners as well as the private sector and other non-government organizations to prevent terrorism and enhance security;
- Ensures community resilience to disasters across the nation through collaborative training exercises and information sharing activities before, during, and after disaster events;
- Secures and manages U.S. borders by collaborating with federal, state, local, and tribal partners to prevent illegal activity and facilitate lawful travel and trade;
- Safeguards and secures civilian and government cyberspace and coordinates with federal, state, local, and tribal government partners to secure critical infrastructure and information systems;

- Enforces U.S. trade laws and facilitates lawful international trade and travel;
- Enforces and administers U.S. immigration laws; and
- Matures and strengthens DHS using a unified and integrated approach to accountability, efficiency, transparency, and leadership development.

B. University of Oregon Mission Statement:

The University of Oregon is a comprehensive public research university committed to exceptional teaching, discovery, and service. We work at a human scale to generate big ideas. As a community of scholars, we help individuals question critically, think logically, reason effectively, communicate clearly, act creatively, and live ethically.

We strive for excellence in teaching, research, artistic expression, and the generation, dissemination, preservation, and application of knowledge. We are devoted to educating the whole person, and to fostering the next generation of transformational leaders and informed participants in the global community. Through these pursuits, we enhance the social, cultural, physical, and economic wellbeing of our students, Oregon, the nation, and the world.

We aspire to be a preeminent and innovative public research university encompassing the humanities and arts, the natural and social sciences, and the professions. We seek to enrich the human condition through collaboration, teaching, mentoring, scholarship, experiential learning, creative inquiry, scientific discovery, outreach, and public service.

At University of Oregon

- We value the passions, aspirations, individuality, and success of the students, faculty, and staff who work and learn here.
- We value academic freedom, creative expression, and intellectual discourse.
- We value our diversity and seek to foster equity and inclusion in a welcoming, safe, and respectful community.
- We value the unique geography, history and culture of Oregon that shapes our identity and spirit.
- We value our shared charge to steward resources sustainably and responsibly.

IV. DEFINITIONS

The Office of Personnel Management’s (OPM) Pathways Programs - Provides access to Federal internships and careers in Government for students and recent graduates. The Pathways Programs consist of the Internship Program for current students; the Recent Graduates Program for people who have recently graduated from qualifying educational institutions or programs (2 years from the date the graduate completed an academic course of study); and the Presidential Management Fellows (PMF) Program for people who obtained an advanced degree (e.g., graduate or professional degree) within the preceding two years.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

A. DHS Responsibilities

DHS will share resources and information, as appropriate and as available staff and resources allocations allow, with the University of Oregon as follows:

1. DHS will share information with the University of Oregon, leveraging the Pathways Programs during the academic year, and will work to expand the visibility into DHS opportunities for students and recent graduates.
2. DHS will share information with University of Oregon to increase the pipeline of talent through DHS Component-specific internship programs to students and recent graduates that provide incentives such as scholarships (tuition and fees), monthly salary, housing allowances, and other benefits.

3. DHS will annually develop a series of webinars geared towards students and recent graduates at University of Oregon to provide valuable information on the DHS mission, current job opportunities, and tips for Federal resume writing and application process.
4. DHS will participate in the University of Oregon's recruiting and outreach opportunities, events, and tours including career fairs, on-campus career orientations, and other awareness activities to inform students, faculty, staff, and alumni about DHS employment and student opportunities. This will include exploring opportunities to highlight DHS's mission and student opportunities at University of Oregon conferences as a sponsor, advertiser, exhibitor, or contributor to presentations to students.
5. DHS will work with the University of Oregon, when invited, to participate in and disseminate information across Headquarters and Components about public policy forums, lectures, presentations, conferences, national level exercises, trainings, and other events at the University of Oregon.
6. To strengthen the partnership between DHS and Institutions of Higher Education (IHEs), DHS will research and review existing MOUs with IHEs to enhance our collaborative efforts and align with existing best practices.
7. DHS and University of Oregon will assess return on investment for the Department on outreach and recruitment activities to ensure accountability and prudent stewardship.

B. The University of Oregon Responsibilities

1. The University of Oregon will advise DHS on effective mechanisms for targeting materials and communications to students and recent graduates.
2. The University of Oregon will disseminate DHS materials and communications to students and recent graduates related to DHS mission, current job opportunities, and tips for Federal resume writing and application process.
3. The University of Oregon will partner with DHS in establishing outreach opportunities on campus to increase awareness of the DHS mission and current job opportunities available to students and recent graduates.
4. The University of Oregon, when appropriate, will invite DHS to participate in public policy forums, lectures, presentations, conferences, national level exercises, trainings, and other events at the University of Oregon.

C. Both DHS and the University of Oregon will:

1. Meet or correspond semi-annually to review DHS/the University of Oregon MOU activities and progress.
2. Notify DHS/the University of Oregon MOU Points of Contact (POC) regarding upcoming meetings, status updates, as well as requests related to the terms of the MOU.
3. Track the annual outcomes of DHS/University of Oregon MOU in a joint report to determine areas of achievement and enhancements.
4. Identify opportunities and programs where professionals from DHS and the University of Oregon can participate in research, capacity-building, training, and exchange programs.

VI. POINTS OF CONTACT

DHS and University of Oregon will designate POCs within their respective organizations to implement the MOU. The POCs will direct and coordinate partnership activities to ensure that mutual benefits and interests are served. The respective offices responsible for implementation and maintenance of this MOU are:

For DHS HQ:

Traci Silas, J.D.
Executive Director, Office of Academic Engagement
HQ Office of Partnership and Engagement

Office of the Provost

VII. OTHER PROVISIONS

- A. Nothing in this MOU is intended to conflict with current law or regulation or the directives of DHS and the University of Oregon. If a term of this MOU is inconsistent with such authority, then that term shall be invalid, but the remaining terms and conditions of this MOU shall remain in full force and effect.
- B. Nothing in this MOU is intended to restrict the authority of either part to act as provided by law, statute, or regulation.

- C. Nothing in this MOU shall be interpreted as affording DHS or the University of Oregon any role in the content, programming, or operating decisions of the other entity.
- D. In order to facilitate and accomplish the goals and objectives set forth in this MOU, DHS and the University of Oregon will meet as necessary and appropriate to discuss issues of mutual interest and assess progress in accomplishing the desired objectives.
- E. This MOU is between DHS and the University of Oregon and does not confer or create any right, benefit, or trust responsibility, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or equity, or by any third person or party (public or private) against the United States, its agencies, its officers, or any person; or against the University of Oregon, its Governing Board or any of its staff.
- F. The parties will use or display each other's name, emblem or trademarks only in the case of particular projects and only with prior written consent of the other party.

VIII. FUNDING

This MOU is not a fiscal or funds obligation document. This MOU does not include the reimbursement of funds between two parties.

IX. EFFECTIVE DATE

The terms of this MOU will become effective on the date of the last signature by the parties.

X. MODIFICATION

The terms of this MOU may be modified upon the mutual written consent of the parties.

XI. TERMINATION

This MOU will remain in effect until [insert date]. The term may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties. Either party may terminate this MOU upon sixty (60) days written notice to the other party.
