

Were you separated from your children when you came to the U.S.?

Are you or your children experiencing anxiety, fear, anger, sadness, or difficulty sleeping since being reunified?

You are entitled to receive help for you and your family.

We can arrange for services over the phone or near your home at a time that is convenient for you.

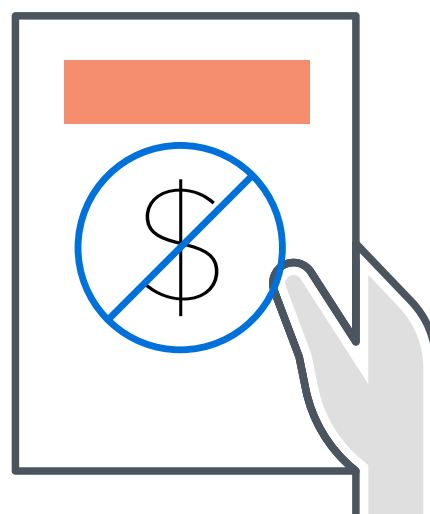

The services will be provided in your preferred language.

All information you share is confidential and will not be shared with ICE or other Government agencies.

The services will be free if you cannot afford to pay.

Please contact Seneca Family of Agencies for help.
