Hi, Margaret – We have engaged with the WH on the Commission – along the lines of roles and missions. No discussions on a DHS staffing role for the Commission. Hope this helps (b)(6)

Subject: Question re DHS involvement

Hi (b)(6)

Hope all's well. We're trying to track down whether/how DHS is involved in the new Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity. Last week this article in the Kansas City Star quoted Kobach saying that the commission would be staffed full time by employees of the Office of the Vice President and DHS. When HSGAC staff asked Jay Harper on our call this morning he said that he was not aware of DHS's involvement, but that, if they are involved, it would probably be through NPPD. Can you confirm whether DHS will be providing staffing for the Commission?

Thanks in advance,

Margaret

Smith will testify that Equifax received a warning on March 8 about a vulnerability in Apache Struts software from U.S. CERT, a Department of Homeland Security body that notifies companies of widespread computer security problems. Equifax used Struts as part of its website. On March 9, the company directed "applicable personnel" to patch that vulnerability. Company policy was to apply such patches within 48 hours. LINK

6. ^ On March 15, 2017, Judge Derrick Watson of the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii issued a temporary restraining order enjoining the government from enforcing several key provisions of the order (Sections 2 and 6). By taking into account evidence beyond the words of the executive order itself, the judge reasoned the executive order was likely motivated by anti-Muslim sentiment and thus breached the Establishment Clause of the United States Constitution. On the same date, Judge Theodore Chuang of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland reached a similar conclusion (enjoining Section 2(c) only). The Department of Justice stated that it "will continue to defend [the] Executive Order in the courts".[430] Shortly following arguments from the state of Hawaii and the Department of Justice, the restraining order was converted by Watson into an indefinite preliminary injunction on March 29.[431][432]
