

The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Committee Member Biography The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Dr. Joseph E. Fergus
Founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer
Communication Technologies, Inc.

Dr. Joseph E. Fergus is the president and CEO of COMTek, a company he founded in 1990. Previously, Dr. Fergus was a research and development (R&D) scientist at AT&T Bell Laboratories from 1982 to 1990, and served as chair of various technical committees in the American National Standards Institute (ANSI). Dr. Fergus represents the U.S. at the International Telecommunications Union-Telecommunications sector (ITU-T) in Geneva, Switzerland. Dr. Fergus is also the founder and CEO of nexGrēn, Inc., a green technology company that specializes in the protection of corporate and personal information assets. Dr. Fergus is a veteran of the U.S. Navy. He received his doctorate of humane letters in science from Norfolk State University in 2004. He holds a master's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois and a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Norfolk State University. He has completed additional coursework through continuing education programs at Harvard University and Northwestern University.

