

P25 CAP, a program the DHS Science and Technology Directorate developed through partnering with the Department of Commerce, has issued testing requirements for Phase 1 Frequency Division Multiple Access (FDMA) and Phase 2 Time Division Multiple Access (TDMA) radio equipment. This table lists the current testing scope status for all recognized P25 CAP laboratories across FDMA and TDMA.

Testing Scope Status

P25 Laboratory Recognition	Recognized for 2016 Test Requirements Phase 1 (Frequency Division Multiple Access [FDMA])				Recognized for 2017 Test Requirements Phase 1/Phase 2 (FDMA/Time Division Multiple Access)
