

A network diagram with a blue background and white lines connecting various nodes. Six circular icons are highlighted with a white glow: a biohazard symbol, a padlock, a map of the United States, a building, a hand holding a globe, and a biohazard symbol.

2016 Reaccreditation & The Future of CAP Testing

Homeland
Security

Science and Technology

Sridhar Kowdley

Program Manager

Office for Interoperability and Compatibility

First Responders Group

Science and Technology Directorate

2016 Compliance Assessment Bulletin (CAB) Release

8/17/16

8/17/17

TIMELINE

- On 8/17/16, CABs are posted on dhs.gov/science-and-technology/p25-cap
- Testing to old CABs and posting of those Summary Test Reports (STR) and Suppliers' Declaration of Compliance (SDoC) documents can continue to occur until 8/17/17
- On 8/17/17, all SDoC/STRs posted on dhs.gov/science-and-technology/p25-cap must have been tested to new CABs
- Any SDoC/STRs that have not been retested to new CABs after 8/17/17 will be taken down from dhs.gov/science-and-technology/p25-cap
- Additional time will be granted on an as needed basis

Homeland
Security

Science and Technology

P25 CAP Testing Updates

- Time Division Multiple Access (TDMA) Phase II
 - Draft CAB developed
 - 45 day public comment period
- Console Sub-system Interface (CSSI)
 - Draft CAB developed
 - 45 day public comment period

Important Reminder: Please make sure you are using the 2016 STR/SDoC templates when testing to 2016 CABs

Homeland
Security

Science and Technology

Re-accreditation of Laboratories

- How is the re-accreditation process going for laboratories?
- Have any labs already had their scheduled visits with our accreditation body partners?
- How are laboratories and manufacturers feeling about the one year timeline?

Homeland
Security

Science and Technology

Promotion of CSSI and ISSI Test Laboratories

- Current State:
 - Existing ISSI Test CABs are in place
 - CSSI Test CABs are being developed
 - No current recognized P25 CAP offers ISSI testing

Question:

- How can P25 CAP promote/encourage the establishment of an ISSI/CSSI test laboratories?

Homeland
Security

Science and Technology

Homeland Security

Science and Technology

Homeland Security

Science and Technology