Fiscal Year 2017 Report to Congress

Homeland
Security

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Message from the Acting Director

September 27, 2017

I am pleased to submit the following report, “USCIS Fee Waiver Policies and Data,” which has been prepared by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

This report was compiled pursuant to language set forth in Senate Report 114-264, accompanying the Fiscal Year (FY) 2017 Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act (P.L. 115-31).

Pursuant to congressional requirements, this report is being provided to the following Members of Congress:

The Honorable John R. Carter
Chairman, House Appropriations Subcommittee on Homeland Security

The Honorable Lucille Roybal-Allard
Ranking Member, House Appropriations Subcommittee on Homeland Security

The Honorable John Boozman
Chairman, Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Homeland Security

The Honorable Jon Tester
Ranking Member, Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Homeland Security

I am pleased to respond to any questions you may have. Please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 272-1000 or the Department’s Acting Chief Financial Officer, Stacy Marcott, at (202) 447-5751.

Sincerely,

James W. McCament
Acting Director
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Executive Summary

This report responds to direction from the U.S. Senate for USCIS to provide policies and data on its use of fee waivers.

Pursuant to section 286(m) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1356(m), USCIS is authorized to establish fees for services at a level that will ensure recovery of the full costs of providing all adjudication and naturalization services, including services provided without charge to certain immigrants. The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.7(c) provide discretionary regulatory authority for USCIS to waive fees for certain applications, petitions, motions, and requests.

The number of fee waiver request receipts increased steadily between FYs 2013 and 2016, with a more substantial increase from FY 2015 to FY 2016. The number of approvals also increased from FY 2013 to FY 2016, while the number of denials increased from FY 2014 to FY 2016, after a decrease from FY 2013 to FY 2014.

In addition to the data on the number of fee waiver receipts, approvals, rejections, and the estimated foregone revenue by fiscal year during FYs 2013–2017,¹ the report also provides USCIS’s policy guidance relating to fee waivers.²

Each fee waiver request is considered on its own merits, and USCIS may grant a fee waiver when it has determined that the individual is unable to pay the fee on the basis of the individual’s overall financial situation. In general, USCIS policy is to consider fee waiver requests when:

- The individual is receiving a means-tested benefit;
- The household income level (at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines) renders the individual unable to pay; or
- Financial hardship otherwise renders the individual unable to pay.

¹ FY 2017 figures represent fee waivers through March 2017 (FY 2017 second quarter).

I. Legislative Language

This document has been compiled in response to language included in Senate Report 114-264, which accompanies the Fiscal Year (FY) 2017 Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Appropriations Act (P.L. 115-31).

Senate Report 114-264 states:

FEE WAIVERS

The Committee is concerned about the increased use of fee waivers, as those paying fees are forced to absorb costs for which they receive no benefit. In addition, those unable to pay USCIS fees are less likely to live in the United States independent of government assistance. The Committee directs USCIS to report on the policies and provide data on the use of fee waivers during the last four fiscal years within 90 days of the date of enactment of this act.

II. Background

Section 286(m) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1356(m), authorizes the Secretary of Homeland Security to designate fees by regulation, which shall be deposited into an “Immigration Examinations Fee Account.” This provision also states that “fees for providing adjudication and naturalization services may be set at a level that will ensure recovery of the full costs of providing all such services, including the costs of similar services provided without charge to asylum applicants and other immigrants.” The Secretary has exercised this authority by designating the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) fee schedule at 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

On November 23, 2010, the Secretary updated the fee waiver regulations³ and established Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, and accompanying instructions, to facilitate the fee waiver request process.⁴ The regulatory criteria for fee waivers, including eligibility for a fee waiver, requesting a fee waiver, and USCIS fees that may be waived, is set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 103.7(c).⁵ The decision to grant a fee waiver is solely within the discretion of USCIS.

USCIS issued guidance in the Policy Memorandum PM-602-0011.1, Fee Waiver Guidelines as Established by the Final Rule of the USCIS Fee Schedule; Revisions to the Adjudicators Field Manual (AFM) Chapter 10.9, AFM Update AD11-26 (Mar. 13, 2011). This memorandum established the policy and process by which USCIS would adjudicate requests for fee waivers.⁶

Each fee waiver request is considered on its own merits, and USCIS may grant a fee waiver when it has determined that the individual is unable to pay the fee on the basis of his/her overall financial situation. Fee waiver determinations are based on a case-by-case discretionary review of the fee waiver request and any additional documentation submitted in support of the request.⁷

USCIS’s fee waiver policy applies to filing fees for those applications, petitions, motions, and requests that are eligible for fee waivers as provided in 8 C.F.R. § 103.7(c). It is important to note that USCIS only allows fee waivers on limited immigration benefit requests. In its 2007 USCIS fee rule, DHS provided that a waiver based on inability to pay must be consistent with the status or benefit sought.⁸ Accordingly, for instance, a fee waiver will be unavailable in the

⁴ The use of a USCIS-published fee waiver request form is not mandated by regulation. USCIS continues to consider applicant-generated fee waiver requests not filed using Form I-912, but that comply with 8 C.F.R. § 103.7(c). Prior to the creation of Form I-912, fee waiver requests were not standardized and required an affidavit and evidence to support the applicant’s inability to pay.

⁵ See 8 C.F.R. § 103.7(c)(1)–(3).

⁶ See Fee Waiver Guidelines as Established by the Final Rule of the USCIS Fee Schedule; Revisions to Adjudicator’s Field Manual \(AFM\) Chapter 10.9, AFM Update AD11-26.

⁷ A fee waiver request may be approved in the absence of additional documentation provided that the individual’s request is detailed sufficiently to substantiate his or her inability to pay the fee.

case of immigration benefit requests that require demonstration of the applicant's ability to support himself or herself, or that are based on a substantial financial investment by the petitioner.⁹

USCIS policy, as described in this report, does not apply to applications and petitions that have no fee (fee-exempt). The March 13, 2011, memorandum and the instructions for Form I-912 provide that fee waiver requests are considered when:

- The individual is receiving a means-tested benefit;¹⁰
- The household income level (at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines) renders the individual unable to pay;¹¹ or
- Financial hardship, due to extraordinary expenses or other circumstances, otherwise renders the individual unable to pay.¹²

USCIS also may grant fee waivers to applicants or petitioners for certain humanitarian programs on the basis of an inability to pay fees associated with the filing of any benefit requested, including filings not otherwise eligible for a fee waiver or eligible only for conditional fee waivers,¹³ by:

- A Violence Against Women Act self-petitioner;
- T nonimmigrants for victims of human trafficking or U nonimmigrants for victims of crimes;¹⁴
- Battered spouses of A, G, E-3, or H nonimmigrants;¹⁵
- A battered spouse or child of a lawful permanent resident or U.S. citizen;¹⁶ and
- Individuals granted Temporary Protected Status.¹⁷

⁹ In 2007, regulations considerably limited which application types could apply for fee waivers from almost all of them to roughly one-third of them. See Final Rule, Adjustment of the Immigration and Naturalization Benefit Application and Petition Fee Schedule, 72 Fed. Reg. 29851, 29874 (May 30, 2007). DHS made no changes to the types of applications that could apply for fee waivers in the 2010 and 2016 fee rules.

¹⁰ A means-tested benefit is a benefit where an individual's eligibility for the benefit, or the amount of the benefit, or both, are determined on the basis of the individual's income and resources, including those that lawfully may be deemed available to the person by the benefit-granting agency. No further information will be required and the fee waiver will be granted if the individual demonstrates that he or she receives a means-tested benefit such as Medicaid or Supplemental Social Security Income.

¹² This includes, for example, unexpected medical bills or emergencies.

¹³ Examples of filings that are only eligible for a fee waiver in certain situations include Forms I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion (only if the underlying application was fee exempt, the fee was waived, or the application was eligible for a fee waiver), and Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (only fee waivable for an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility of section 212(a)(4) of the INA).

¹⁴ See INA sections 101(a)(15)(T) and 101(a)(15)(U).

¹⁵ See INA section 106.

¹⁶ See INA section 240A(b)(2).

¹⁷ See INA section 244(a)(3).

In 2016, USCIS updated the Form I-912, Fee Waiver Request, and its instructions to clarify the fee waiver policy by providing additional information about:

- How to calculate income (as adjusted gross income);
- How to determine the household size on the basis of the number of household members and income;
- What information and evidence applicants need to provide to show that they currently receive a means-tested benefit; and
- When a means-tested benefit is considered valid (i.e., benefit document is dated within 12 months from the time of filing).

USCIS may waive fees for an eligible form on the basis of an inability to pay and, in certain circumstances, subject to the specific conditions noted in the regulations and form instructions.¹⁸

¹⁸ A list of forms is available in Appendix A.

III. Data Report

The following table provides FYs 2013–2017 fee waiver data and does not include fee exemptions. The number of fee waiver request receipts increased steadily between FYs 2013 and 2016, with a more substantial increase from FY 2015 to FY 2016. The number of approvals increased from FY 2013 to FY 2016, while the number of denials increased from FY 2014 to FY 2016, after a decrease from FY 2013 to FY 2014.

USCIS Fee Waiver Request Receipts, Approvals, and Denials¹⁹ FYs 2013–2017 Year-to-Date (YTD) Q2
Fiscal Year	Receipts	Approvals	Denials	Foregone Revenue Estimate²⁰
2013 Total	541,329	403,227	138,063	$ 222,833,915
2014 Total	572,835	457,576	115,163	$ 248,726,775
2015 Total	638,793	518,777	119,935	$ 283,162,095
2016 Total	753,402	627,959	125,118	$ 344,293,760
2017 Total	331,277	285,009	45,824	$ 173,051,835

Notes:

- FY 2017 figures represent fee waivers through March 2017 (FY 2017 second quarter).
- Forms N-400, I-485, I-765, and I-90 account for most of the estimated foregone revenue to fee waivers (84.6 percent, 84.6 percent, 86.4 percent, and 88.0 percent in FYs 2013–2016, respectively). See Appendix D for foregone revenue estimates of the top 10 fee-waived forms.

¹⁹ Not all fee waiver applications are adjudicated in the same fiscal year that they are received. Likewise, not all approvals and denials occur in the same fiscal year in which a fee waiver request is filed. Thus, the number of approvals and denials does not equal fee waiver request receipts.

²⁰ Available USCIS fee waiver data lack the granularity necessary to delineate waived fees in cases of forms with multiple filing fees. The higher fee is assumed to estimate the foregone revenue. Additionally, the fee schedule change in December 2016 and the timing of fee waiver approvals may slightly skew FY 2017 foregone revenue estimates because of fee waiver adjudication timeframes (see footnote 21). Finally, automatic biometric services fee waivers associated with underlying forms that require biometrics are not captured adequately and are underreported.

IV. Conclusion

USCIS issues fee waivers on a discretionary, case-by-case basis, pursuant to the Secretary's discretionary statutory and regulatory authority and in accordance with the 2011 USCIS Policy Memorandum, Fee Waiver Guidelines as Established by the Final Rule of the USCIS Fee Schedule.²¹

The data and policy provided in this report responds to the legislative inquiry regarding USCIS's use of fee waivers.

²¹ DHS is required by INA section 245(l)(7), 8 U.S.C. § 1255(l)(7) to permit certain aliens to apply for a fee waiver. USCIS has the discretion to approve or deny the fee waiver request under applicable regulation and policy.

Policy Memorandum

SUBJECT: Fee Waiver Guidelines as Established by the Final Rule of the USCIS Fee Schedule; Revisions to Adjudicator's Field Manual (AFM) Chapter 10.9, AFM Update AD11-26

Purpose

This Policy Memorandum (PM) provides guidance on processing fee waiver requests filed pursuant to 8 CFR 103.7(c) as amended by changes made in the final rule "U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Fee Schedule," published in the Federal Register (FR) on September 24, 2010. See 75 FR 58961.

Scope

Unless specifically exempted herein, this PM applies to and is binding on all USCIS employees. This PM supersedes and rescinds all preceding fee-waiver guidance, including the following memoranda:

- Michael A. Pearson memorandum, Fee Waiver Relating to Employment Authorization for Victims of Trafficking, dated May 25, 2001
- William R. Yates memorandum, Adjustment of Fees of the Immigration Examinations Fee Account, dated February 1, 2002
- Johnny N. Williams memorandum, Fee Surcharges and Refund of Fee Surcharges, dated January 23, 2003
- William R. Yates memorandum, Correction regarding the fees for filing Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship, and Form N-600K, Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate under Section 322, dated July 23, 2003
- William R. Yates memorandum, Field Guidance on Granting Fee Waivers Pursuant to 8 CFR 103.7(c), dated March 4, 2004
- William R. Yates memorandum, Adjustment of the Immigration Benefit Application Fee Schedule, dated April 15, 2004
- William R. Yates memorandum, Fee Waivers for Hurricane Katrina Victims, dated September 19, 2005
- Don Neufeld memorandum, Adjustment of the Immigration Benefit Application Fee Schedule, dated July 12, 2007

- Don Neufeld memorandum, Fee Waiver Guidelines as Established by the Final Rule of the Immigration and Naturalization Benefit Application and Petition Fee Schedule, Revisions to Adjudicators' Field Manual (AFM) Chapters 10.9(a) (AFM Update AD07-19), dated July 20, 2007
- Michael L. Aytes and Rendell Jones memorandum, Fee Waivers for Victims of Southern California Wildfires, dated November 27, 2007

Authority

This PM is issued under the authority of Title 8 CFR 103.7(c) and INA section 286(m).

Background

The final rule “U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Fee Schedule,” effective November 23, 2010, establishes a new fee schedule for immigration-benefit requests. It also amends the regulations governing fee-waiver eligibility. USCIS has developed the new Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, in an effort to facilitate the fee-waiver request process. The form will become available for public use on November 23, 2010. As the use of a USCIS-published fee-waiver request form is not mandated by regulation, USCIS will continue to consider applicant-generated fee-waiver requests (i.e., those not submitted on Form I-912) that comply with 8 CFR 103.7(c).

Policy

It is USCIS policy that individuals may apply for and be granted a fee waiver for certain immigration benefits and services based on an inability to pay. Please consult the revisions to AFM Chapter 10.9 in this PM for the complete list of forms and services that are eligible for a fee waiver.

Implementation

USCIS released Form I-912 to provide a standard means for submitting fee-waiver requests. The form is intended to bring clarity and consistency to the fee-waiver process. The Form I-912 instructions provide applicants with guidance on properly completing Form I-912 and submitting supporting documentation. The Form I-912 instructions also give information on the methodology that USCIS uses to make a decision on a fee-waiver request. USCIS uses the same methodology whether the request is submitted on a Form I-912 or via an applicant-generated request. USCIS will continue to consider applicant-generated fee-waiver requests (i.e., those not submitted on Form I-912), but those requests must meet the criteria described in AFM Chapter 10.9 in order for the fee to be waived. All pending and newly submitted fee waiver requests will be reviewed under the guidelines in that chapter.

In general, fee-waiver requests will be reviewed by considering, in a step-wise fashion, whether the applicant is receiving a means-tested benefit, whether the applicant's household income level renders him or her unable to pay, or whether recent financial hardship otherwise renders him or her unable to pay. This PM also provides examples of required or acceptable supporting documentation.

Revisions to the AFM

1. Effective March 13, 2011, Chapter 10.9 of the AFM is revised to read:

10.9 Waiver of Fees.

(a) Submission of Request. A person requesting a waiver of fees for an application, petition, appeal, motion, service or other matter may submit either a Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, or a written request for permission to have their immigration benefit request processed without payment of the required fee as provided in 8 CFR 103.7(c) and this chapter. There is no fee required for filing a fee-waiver request.

(1) Applicability. These guidelines apply to filing fees for those applications, petitions, motions, and requests contained in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1)(i) and (c).

(2) General Fee Waivers. USCIS may waive fees for the following based on an inability to pay:

- Biometrics services fee;
- Form I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card;
- Form I-191, Application for Advance Permission to Return to Unrelinquished Domicile;
- Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence;
- Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization;
- Form I-817, Application for Family Unity Benefits;
- Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status;
- Form I-881, Application for Suspension of Deportation or Special Rule Cancellation of Removal (Pursuant to Section 203 of Public Law 105-100 (NACARA));
- Form N-300, Application to File Declaration of Intention;
- Form N-336, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (Under Section 336 of the INA);
- Form N-400, Application for Naturalization;
- Form N-470, Application to Preserve Residence for Naturalization Purposes;
- Form N-565, Application for Replacement of Naturalization/Citizenship Document;
- Form N-600, Application for Certification of Citizenship; and
- Form N-600K, Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate under Section 322.

(3) Conditional Fee Waivers. If the application or petition is not listed in paragraph (a)(2) of this chapter, USCIS may waive a fee based on an inability to pay and subject to the conditions specified:

- Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, only for those applying for humanitarian parole (i.e., only for persons that are applying for an Advance Parole Document under Application Type “e” or “f” in Part 2 of the Form I-131);
- Form I-192, Application for Advance Permission to Enter as Nonimmigrant for an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility of section 212(a)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), either by statute or by policy;
- Form I-193, Application for Waiver for Passport and/or Visa for an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility of section 212(a)(4) of the INA, either by statute or by policy;
- Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, if the underlying application was fee exempt, the fee was waived, or it was eligible for a fee waiver;
- Form I-485, Application To Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, for the following individuals:
 - An Afghan and Iraqi Interpreter who has received a Special Immigrant Visa;
 - A “Registry” applicant filing under section 249 of the INA who has maintained continuous residence in the United States since before January 1, 1972; or
 - An applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility under section 212(a)(4) of the INA, including but not limited to the following circumstances:
 - Applications filed by asylees under section 209(b) of the INA;
 - Applications for Special Immigrant Juveniles;
 - Applications under the Cuban Adjustment Act, the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act (HRIFA), and the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act (NACARA), or similar provisions; and
 - Applications filed by Lautenberg Parolees.
- Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility for an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility of section 212(a)(4) of the INA.

(4) Humanitarian Fee Waivers. Based on an inability to pay, USCIS may waive any fees associated with the filing of any benefit request by a VAWA self-petitioner or under sections 101(a)(15)(T) (T visas), 101(a)(15)(U) (U visas), 106 (battered spouses of A, G, E-3, or H nonimmigrants), 240A(b)(2) (battered spouse or child of a lawful permanent resident or U.S. citizen), and 244(a)(3) (Temporary Protected Status), of the Act (as in effect on March 31, 1997). This would include filings not otherwise eligible for a fee waiver or eligible only for conditional fee waivers such as Forms I-212, I-485, I-539, and I-601.

(5) Documentation. Whether the request is submitted on Form I-912 or in the form of a written statement, the applicant may submit additional documentation to provide proof of his or her inability to pay. Fee-waiver requests should be decided based upon the request for a fee waiver and any additional documentation submitted in support of the fee waiver request. A fee-waiver request may be approved in the absence of such additional documentation provided that the applicant's request is sufficiently detailed to substantiate his or her inability to pay the fee. If USCIS determines that the individual did not substantiate his or her inability to pay, then the fee waiver request should be denied.

(6) Submission of Both Fee and Fee Waiver Request. When a form is submitted with both the appropriate fee for the form and a fee-waiver request, the form should be processed, if otherwise acceptable, as properly filed with fee. No subsequent consideration should be given to, nor action taken on the fee-waiver request.

(b) Review of Request.

(1) Inability to Pay. Each fee-waiver request is unique and should be considered on its own merits. A fee-waiver request may be granted when USCIS has determined that the individual is unable to pay the fee. Inability to pay the fee is based on the individual's overall financial picture and household situation, as may be established according to the steps and criteria described below.

(2) Determining Inability to Pay and Adjudicating the Fee-Waiver Request. In determining whether the individual is unable to pay the fee and should be granted a fee waiver, the USCIS employee must proceed according to the following steps and criteria:

- Step 1. Is the individual receiving a means-tested benefit?
 - The individual may demonstrate that he or she is receiving a "means-tested benefit." A means-tested benefit is a benefit where a person's eligibility for the benefit, or the amount of the benefit, or both, are determined on the basis of the person's income and resources, including those that may lawfully be deemed available to the person by the benefit-granting agency. Examples of means-tested benefit programs are Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income, and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families.
 - To demonstrate that the individual (or the individual's spouse or the head of the household in which the individual resides) is receiving a means-tested benefit, the applicant should provide proof in the form of a letter, notice, or other official document(s) containing the name of the agency granting the benefit. The document(s) submitted must show the name of the recipient of the means-tested benefit and the name of the benefit received.
 - If the individual provides sufficient proof of the means-tested benefit, the fee waiver will normally be approved, and no further information will be required.

- Step 2. Is the individual's household income at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines at the time of filing?
 - The individual may demonstrate that his or her household income, on which taxes were paid for the most recent tax year, is at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Level as established in the most recent poverty guidelines. Those guidelines are revised annually by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and are available at <http://aspe.hhs.gov/poverty>. For fee-waiver review purposes, a household may include an applicant, spouse, parent(s) living with the applicant, and any of the following family members:
 - An unmarried child or legal ward under 21 years of age living with the applicant;
 - An unmarried child or legal ward over 21 years of age but under 24 years of age who is a full-time student and living with the applicant when not at school; or
 - An unmarried child or legal ward for whom the applicant is the legal guardian because the individual is physically or mentally disabled to the extent that he or she cannot adequately care for him or herself and cannot establish, maintain, or re-establish his or her own household.
 - The applicant may submit documentation as follows to demonstrate that his or her household income is at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines at the time of filing:
 - Evidence of current employment or self-employment such as recent pay statements, W-2 forms, statement(s) from the individual's employer(s) on business stationery showing salary or wages paid, or income tax returns (proof of filing of a tax return).
 - Documentation establishing other financial support or subsidies – such as parental support, alimony, child support, educational scholarships and fellowships, pensions, Social Security, veteran's benefits, etc. Financial support or subsidy may include monetary contributions for the payment of monthly expenses received from adult children, dependents, and other people who are living in the individual's household, etc.
 - If available, the individual's Federal tax return(s), listing the members of the household.
 - If the applicant is filing on behalf of, or as a Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ), the fee waiver request should be supported by one of the following forms of evidence:
 - A recent state or juvenile court order establishing dependency or custodial assignment of the SIJ; or
 - A letter from a foster care home or similar agency overseeing the SIJ's custodial placement that describes the SIJ's inability to pay; or

- An approval notice on a Form I-797, Notice of Action, for a Form I-360, filed for the SIJ.
- If the individual provides sufficient proof that his or her household income is at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines at the time of filing, the fee waiver will normally be approved, and no further information will be required.
- Step 3. Is the individual under financial hardship, due to extraordinary expenses or other circumstances, that renders the individual unable to pay the fee?
 - The individual may demonstrate that he or she is under financial hardship due to extraordinary expenses or other circumstances affecting his or her financial situation to the degree that he or she is unable to pay the fee. Examples include unexpected and uninsured (or underinsured) medical bills, situations that could not normally be expected in the regular course of life events, or a medical emergency or catastrophic illness affecting the individual or the individual's dependents. If the individual is under financial hardship, the individual should demonstrate that he or she has suffered a sufficiently negative financial impact as a result of this hardship in a reasonably recent period preceding the filing of the fee-waiver request so as to render the applicant's income during that period insufficient to pay the fee.
 - The applicant may submit documentation as follows to demonstrate that he or she is under financial hardship that renders him or her unable to pay the fee:
 - Documentation of all assets owned, possessed, or controlled by the individual and by his or her dependents. Assets include real estate, property, cash, checking and savings accounts, stocks, bonds, and annuities (except for pension plans and Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs)).
 - Documentation concerning liabilities and expenses owed by the individual and his or her dependents, and any other expenses for which the individual is responsible. Liabilities and expenses include the cost of rent, mortgages, lease, the average monthly cost of food, utilities, child care and elder care, medical expenses, any tuition costs, commuting costs, and monthly payments of any lawful debts.
 - If the applicant cannot provide evidence of income, he or she should provide a description of the financial hardship and why he or she cannot provide any evidence of income. Affidavits from churches and other community-based organizations indicating that the applicant is currently receiving some benefit from that entity may be used as evidence of income.

- Any other documentation or evidence that demonstrates the individual's inability to pay the fee based on his or her overall financial picture and household situation.
- In reviewing all documentation and information submitted, consider whether cash or assets exist aside from income which could be liquidated without the applicant incurring a hardship. For example, the applicant may own stocks or other assets that could be easily liquidated.

(c) Processing Fee Waiver Requests.

(1) Effective Date. As of November 23, 2010, all pending and newly submitted fee waiver requests must be reviewed under these guidelines. These guidelines apply only to application and petition filing fees contained in 8 CFR 103.7(b).

(2) Notation on Form. After careful review of the fee-waiver request and supporting documentation, the fee-waiver approval or denial should be recorded in the receipt block of the underlying form for which the applicant is requesting a fee waiver. The fee-waiver decision should also be noted on the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, if that is how the applicant submitted the request. In addition, the signature of the approving officer and any relevant comments should be written on the Form I-912. If the fee-waiver request is denied, send the applicant Form G-1054, Request for Fee Waiver Denial Letter. If reviewing an electronic version of the fee-waiver request, record the fee-waiver approval or denial in an electronic system and note the name of the USCIS employee making the fee-waiver decision.

2. The AFM Transmittal Memoranda button is revised by adding, in numerical order, the following entry:

AD 11-26 03/13/2011	Chapter 10.9	Provides guidance on considering and approving requests for fee waivers.

Instructions for Request for Fee Waiver

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-912
OMB No. 1615-0116
Expires 04/30/2018

You may request a fee waiver if you are unable to pay the filing fees or biometric services fees for an application or petition that is eligible for a fee waiver. When you request a fee waiver, you must clearly demonstrate that you are unable to pay the fees.

You can find the list of applications and petitions that are eligible for a fee waiver at www.uscis.gov/I-912 or refer to 8 CFR 103.7(c)(3). For filing tips and additional information, see www.uscis.gov/feewaiver.

You do not need to submit Form I-912 for an application or petition that does not require a filing fee or if you qualify for a fee exemption based on your immigration status. Refer to the Instructions for each application or petition to see whether you are exempt from paying the fees.

Forms Eligible for Fee Waiver

Below is a list of applications and petitions U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) will consider for a fee waiver and the conditions that must be met to be eligible for a fee waiver. Under current fee waiver regulations, USCIS can only approve fee waivers for certain forms or certain filings of a particular form type, when fee waiver requirements are met.

You may file this form to request a fee waiver for any of the following benefit requests or services:

1. Biometric services fee, except for the biometric services fee required for a provisional unlawful presence waiver application (Form I-601A) filed under 8 CFR 212.7(e);
2. Form EOIR-29, Notice of Appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals from a Decision of an Immigration Officer;
3. Form I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card;
4. Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, but only if you are an applicant for E-2 CNMI investor nonimmigrant status under 8 CFR 214.2(e)(23);
5. Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, but only if you are applying for humanitarian parole;
6. Form I-191, Application for Advance Permission to Return to Unrelinquished Domicile;
7. Form I-192, Application for Advance Permission to Enter as Nonimmigrant, but only if you are an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility;
8. Form I-193, Application for Waiver for Passport and/or Visa, but only if you are an applicant who is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility;
9. Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, but only if your underlying application was fee exempt, the filing fee was waived, or it was eligible for a fee waiver;
10. Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. A fee waiver is only available if you are applying for lawful permanent resident status based on:
 - A. Special Immigrant Status based on an approved Form I-360 as an Afghan or Iraqi Interpreter, or Afghan or Iraqi National employed by or on behalf of the U.S. Government;
 - B. An adjustment provision that is exempt from the public charge grounds of inadmissibility of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a)(4), such as the Cuban Adjustment Act, the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act, continuous residence in the United States since before January 1, 1972, ("Registry"), Asylum Status, Special Immigrant Juvenile Status, or similar provisions;

11. Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status, but only if you are an applicant with any benefit request as specified by INA section 245(l)(7) or an applicant for E-2 Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) investor nonimmigrant status under 8 CFR 214.2(e)(23);

6. VAWA self-petitioner (such as Forms I-485, I-601 and I-212).

You may not file Form I-912 if you are requesting consideration DACA. There are no fee waivers for DACA. Fee exemptions will be available in limited circumstances. See the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Fee exemption at www.uscis.gov/forms/forms-and-fees/guidance-exemption-fee-form-i-765-filed-request-consideration-deferred-action-childhood-arrivals for more details.

You do not need to file Form I-912 for applications and petitions that do not require a filing fee. Other USCIS applications and petitions have fee exemption requirements for certain types of applicants and petitioners. In these cases, the USCIS form and instructions will outline the fee exemption and submission if a separate Form I-912 is not required. If your form is not listed, please see the specific form instructions for additional information or call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283.

You must file this fee waiver request with all applications and petitions for which you are requesting a fee waiver. You do not have to file a separate Form I-912 for the filing fee and the biometric services fee. If USCIS approves your Form I-912, we will waive both the filing fee and biometric services fee.

You may file one Form I-912 for all family-related applications or petitions filed at the same time. For example, if you file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and your spouse and children are filing separate Form I-765s at the same time, you only need to file one Form I-912 for all Form I-765s. You must send all forms together.

General Instructions

USCIS provides all forms free of charge. The latest versions are available at www.uscis.gov/forms. In order to best view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at get.adobe.com/reader. If you do not have Internet access or have questions about this request, you may call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask that we mail a form to you. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Signature. Each request must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this request, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the request on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation required under the Specific Instructions section of these Instructions.

Copies. You may submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless these Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or request. If you submit original documents when not required, the documents may remain a part of the record, and USCIS will not automatically return them to you.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

How To Fill Out Form I-912

1. Type or print legibly in black or dark blue ink. If a section does not apply to you, type or print "N/A," which stands for "not applicable." Fully and accurately answer all questions that apply to the basis for your request.
2. If you need extra space to complete any item within this request, use the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information. You may also attach as many separate sheets of paper as needed; type or print your name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) at the top of each sheet and indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers.

Specific Instructions

Part 1. Basis for Your Request

Item Numbers 1. - 3. Select a basis for your request. You are not required to complete the entire section of this request. Rather, select one basis or more for which you may qualify and complete the corresponding section as explained below in Parts 4., 5., and 6.

Part 2. Information About You (Requestor)

Item Number 1. Full Name. Provide your full name. If you have two last names, include both in the Family Name box and use a hyphen (-) if appropriate. If you do not have a middle name, type or print “N/A.”

Item Number 2. Other Names Used (if any). Provide all other names you have used, including your maiden name.

Item Number 3. Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any). An A-Number is a number assigned by USCIS or the former Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). People with A-Numbers can locate the number on their USCIS-issued or INS-issued documentation. If the intending immigrants you are sponsoring were not previously in the United States or were only in the United States as tourists, they may not have A-Numbers.

Item Number 4. USCIS ELIS Account Number (if any). If you were issued a USCIS Electronic Immigration System (USCIS ELIS) Account Number, enter it in the space provided. The USCIS ELIS Account Number is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Number 5. Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy). Provide your date of birth in mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, enter May 1, 1979, as 05/01/1979.

Item Number 6. U.S. Social Security Number (if any). Provide your U.S. Social Security number.

Item Number 7. Marital Status. Indicate your current marital status.

Part 3. Applications and Petitions for Which You are Requesting a Fee Waiver

Item Number 1. Complete the table for yourself and each person requesting a fee waiver with you. Provide the form numbers and the total number of applications and petitions for which you and any family members are requesting a fee waiver.

Part 4. Means-Tested Benefits

Item Number 1. If you, your spouse, or the head of household living with you receives a means-tested benefit, complete the table. You must attach supporting documentation. If you provide sufficient proof that you receive a means-tested benefit, your fee waiver will generally be approved.

A means-tested benefit is a public benefit where a person’s eligibility for the benefit, the amount of the benefit, or both, is based on the person’s income and resources. USCIS will consider means-tested benefits that are Federally, state, or locally funded and granted by the benefit agency.

Examples of means-tested benefit programs are Medicaid, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (known as “SNAP” and formerly called Food Stamps), Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), and Supplemental Security Income (SSI), among others. Consult with your benefit-granting agency or your legal advisor to determine whether any Federal, state, or local public benefit that you may receive qualifies as a means-tested benefit.

For the purposes of determining an inability to pay the filing fee of the petition or application, the following are not considered means-tested benefits: Medicare; unemployment benefits; Social Security retirement benefits; Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI); Social Security Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI); or student financial aid.

1. Individual Receipt of a Means-Tested Benefit

- A. The individual may demonstrate that he or she is personally receiving a means-tested benefit.
- B. If a child is the sole applicant, he or she may provide an individual means-tested benefit or a custodial parent’s means-tested benefit, if living in the same household.
- C. If multiple children are filing at the same time, each child must have an individual receipt of a means-tested benefit or be under the parent’s household who is receiving a means-tested benefit.

2. Family Members’ Means-Tested Benefits

- A. Your spouse and unmarried children under 21 years of age living with you will normally qualify for a fee waiver as part of your household if you are receiving means-tested benefits.

- B. If your spouse is receiving a means-tested benefit, you will normally qualify for a fee waiver as long as you are residing with your spouse and are not legally separated.
 - C. You may not use a means-tested benefit received by a child or household member, other than a spouse, as the basis for eligibility in Part 4. Means-Tested Benefits, but you may use it to support a fee waiver request in Part 5. Income at or Below 150 Percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines or under Part 6. Financial Hardship if the award letter or benefit approval document indicates the total household income.
 - D. If you are 21 years of age or older, you cannot use a parent's means-tested benefits (such as SSI), even if the parent is living with you, as evidence of your eligibility for a fee waiver. However, you may use this information to support a fee waiver request in Part 5. Income at or Below 150 Percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines or under Part 6. Financial Hardship if the award letter or benefit approval document indicates the total household income and you are otherwise eligible under those criteria.

3. Documentation

- A. To qualify for a fee waiver, the evidence that you provide must demonstrate that you are currently receiving the means-tested benefit. This evidence can be in the form of a letter, notice, or other agency documents that indicate that the benefit is being received.
- B. Documentation must contain:
 - (1) Your name (or the name of the person receiving the benefit);
 - (2) The name of the agency granting the public benefit;
 - (3) The type of benefit; and
 - (4) An indication that the benefit is currently being received (for example, a recently dated letter or document with effective dates, date of renewal or period the approval ends, if available).
- C. If the documentation is more than 12 months old and the benefit is still being received, provide additional evidence that shows the benefit is currently being received.

Part 5. Income at or Below 150 Percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines

To qualify for the fee waiver, your household income must be at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, at the time of filing, based on your household size. The Federal Poverty Guidelines are established by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services annually. To obtain information on the current Federal Poverty Guidelines, visit our Web site at www.uscis.gov/I-912P and review Form I-912P, Poverty Guidelines for Fee Waiver Request.

Your Employment Status

Item Number 1. Employment Status. Indicate your current employment status. If you are both employed and a student, select Other and provide an explanation.

Item Number 2. Indicate if you are currently receiving unemployment benefits. If applicable, provide the date that you became unemployed and include the total amount of unemployment benefits you have received in Item Number 7.

Information About Your Spouse

Item Number 3. Indicate whether your spouse is living with you. If your spouse lives with you, list your spouse in the table provided in Item Number 4. If applicable, indicate whether your spouse provides any financial support to your household. If your spouse provides any financial support to your household, include any contributions that your spouse provides to your household in Item Number 7.

Your Household Size

Item Number 4. Indicate whether you are providing the primary financial support for your household.

Complete the table with the information requested about the members of your household including their names, dates of birth, relationship to you, whether the person is married, whether the person is a full-time student, and whether the person earns income counted towards household income.

For the last column (Is any income earned by this person counted towards the household income?), select yes if income is received consistently or regularly as wages or salary from these household members' employment or business.

At the end of the table, provide the total number of household members. Include the following people, who are dependent on your income, your spouse's income, or the head of household's income, as part of your household size:

1. You;
2. The head of your household (if not you). If the child is applying individually, provide the information of the primary custodial parent;
 - A. You are the head of household if you filed the most recent Federal tax return for your household (includes filing as head of household) or earned the majority of the income for your household.
 - B. If you are not the head of household, the head of household is the person who filed the most recent Federal tax return on which you are listed as a dependent or the person who provides the majority of your household's income. If you already have or are applying for Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) classification, do not include any foster or group home household members.
3. Your spouse, if living with you (if you are separated or your spouse is not living with you, do not include your spouse); or
4. Any family members living in your household who are dependent on your income, your spouse's income, or the head of household's income, including:
 - A. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried and under 21 years of age, and who live with you;
 - B. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried, are over 21 years of age but under 24 years of age, are full-time students, and who live with you when not at school;
 - C. Your children or legal wards who are unmarried and for whom you are the legal guardian because they are physically or developmentally disabled or mentally impaired to the extent that they cannot adequately care for themselves and cannot establish, maintain, or re-establish their own household;
 - D. Your parents who live with you; and
 - E. Any other dependents listed on your Federal tax return or your spouse or head of household's Federal tax returns.

Your Annual Household Income

Item Number 5. Your Annual Income. Provide information on your annual income. If you filed a Federal tax return, enter the amount from Line 37 (adjusted gross income) on Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. If you have not filed a Federal tax return, take your total household wage income (before any deductions) for the previous 12-month period and enter that amount as your household's annual income. If you have not filed a Federal income tax return but you have an IRS Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, that covers the previous 12-month period, take your total wage income, deduct Federal, state, and local income taxes withheld, and enter that amount as your household's annual wage income.

Documentation. To document your annual income, provide the following information:

1. A copy of your most recent Federal tax return;
2. If you did not file a Federal tax return, or if your Federal tax return does not properly reflect your current income, submit copies of consecutive pay statements (stubs) for a minimum of the past month, recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099, or statements from your employers on business stationery showing salary or wages paid;
3. If you are a student and not living with your parents or are not claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal tax return, do not include your parents' incomes. You should only provide proof of your income or documentation that shows you are not required to file a Federal or state tax return, such as proof that you are a full-time student as supporting documentation;

4. If you are recently unemployed, and your annual income on your Federal tax return or other proof of income is above 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, describe your particular situation that you believe qualifies you for a fee waiver in Part 5., Item Number 9. Provide information regarding any unemployment benefits you are currently receiving;
 5. If you do not have any income, financial support, or cannot provide evidence of income, describe your particular situation that you believe qualifies you for a fee waiver in Part 5., Item Number 9. If available, you may submit affidavits from, for example, religious institutions, non-profits, community-based organizations, or similarly recognized organizations, indicating that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from the organization verifying (or attesting to) your situation; and
 6. If you are filing Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, based on SIJ classification, accompany the fee waiver request by evidence that the applicant was approved or filed for SIJ classification (for example, Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant,; or a copy of Form I-797, Notice of Action, for Form I-360). SIJ Applicants seeking adjustment of status based on such classification are not required to complete Parts 4. - 6. of Form I-912 nor show proof of income.

Item Number 6. Annual Income of All Household Members. Provide the annual income from all family members counted as part of your household.

1. If a person lives with you, but does not contribute financial support to your household, then you should not include this person's income when calculating your household income.
2. If you are separated or still married, but do not live with your spouse, do not include your spouse's income. However, you must include any financial support your spouse provides to your household in Item Number 7.
3. If you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), or T or U nonimmigrant status under the Victims of Violence and Trafficking Protection Reauthorization Act, do not provide your spouse's income.
4. If you are a full-time student, over 21 years of age but under 24 years of age, are unmarried, and are living with your parents, or you are claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal tax return, include your parents' income. You must provide a copy of both parents' Federal tax returns and your own Federal tax return, or provide proof of income as supporting documentation.
5. If members of your household are recently unemployed, and your annual household income on your Federal tax return or other proof of income is above 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, describe your particular situation that you believe qualifies you for a fee waiver in Part 5., Item Number 9.

Documentation. To document your household members' incomes, provide the following:

1. A copy of each household member's most recent Federal tax return;
2. If the household member did not file a Federal tax return, or if the tax return does not properly reflect their current income, submit copies of consecutive pay statements (stubs) for a minimum of the past month, a recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099, or employer statements on business stationery showing salary or wages paid; or
3. If you do not have any income or cannot provide evidence of income for your household, describe your particular situation in Part 5., Item Number 9. If applicable, you may submit affidavits from religious institutions, non-profits, or community-based organizations verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from them.

Item Number 7. Total Additional Income or Financial Support. Provide additional income or financial support from a source outside your household. Type or print "0" if you have no additional income. You must include any consistent or regular financial support or additional income contributed to your household by any person living with you or not living with you, even if it is not part of the household for tax purposes.

Select any type of additional income you are receiving including any amount of money that you receive annually that is not included in Item Number 5. or 6.

Documentation. You must document additional financial assistance as income. Include the following information:

1. Documentation such as parental support; alimony; child support; educational stipends; pensions; Social Security; royalties, pensions, veterans benefits; unemployment benefits; and consistent or regular financial support from adult children, parents, dependents, or other people living in your household.
2. A court order of any child support or documentation that indicates the actual amount of child support amount being received (for example, bank statements or IRS Form W-2), or documentation from an agency providing the other income or financial assistance.
3. If you are receiving unemployment benefits, the tax document, IRS Form 1099-MISC, is not enough to establish total income. You must also provide a copy of your IRS Form 1040.

Item Number 8. Total Household Income. Provide the total household income. Add the amounts from Item Numbers 5., 6., and 7. USCIS will compare this amount to the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

If you do not have any income, financial support, or cannot provide evidence of income, describe your particular situation that you believe qualifies you for a fee waiver in Part 5., Item Number 9. If applicable, you may submit affidavits from religious institutions, non-profits, or community-based organizations verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from them.

Item Number 9. Indicate whether any information (including marital status, income, and list of dependents) in your Federal tax returns is different from what you indicate in Form I-912. Provide the reasons for any changes in circumstances and any differences between the tax returns and information in your Form I-912. If you need to explain anything else about your circumstances that affect the income determination, use the space provided in Part 11.

Additional Information.

Part 6. Financial Hardship

Item Number 1. Provide details about your financial hardship. This may include, but is not limited to, medical expenses of family members, unemployment, eviction, and homelessness. You may also complete this section if your income is above 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines as defined in Part 5. and you believe you have special circumstances that warrant a fee waiver.

Documentation. You must document your income and provide a complete list, description, and an estimate of the value of your assets that you can easily convert into cash and any liabilities.

Item Number 2. List the types of assets you have, the dollar value of those assets, and the total dollar value of your assets. Include the following assets:

1. Cash, checking and savings accounts, annuities, stocks, and bonds. These are assets that easily convert into cash; and
2. Other property or assets that you can easily convert into cash without incurring a hardship.

Do not include your pension plans and Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA).

Documentation. Provide documentation of your income and any evidence regarding the types and value of your assets.

Item Number 3. Total Monthly Expenses and Liabilities. Provide your average monthly costs for all applicable categories provided.

Documentation. Provide evidence, where possible, such as copies of monthly bills and payments, and documentation for monthly expenses and any extenuating circumstances, such as medical bills. If you cannot provide evidence of income, you may submit affidavits from religious institutions, non-profits, or community-based organizations verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from them.

Part 7. Requestor's Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1. - 6. Select the appropriate box to indicate whether you read this request yourself or whether you had an interpreter assist you. If someone assisted you in completing the request, select the box indicating that you used a preparer. Further, you must sign and date your request and provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every request MUST contain the signature of the requestor (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Item Numbers 7. - 11. Each person applying for a fee waiver must sign and date Form I-912. This includes family members identified in Part 3. If an individual is under 14 years of age, a parent or legal guardian may sign the request on his or her behalf. USCIS will reject any Form I-912 that is not signed by all individuals requesting a fee waiver.

Part 8. Family Member's Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

NOTE: If the information provided by the requestor in Part 7 is not applicable to a family member identified in Part 3, (for example, the family member used a different interpreter or speaks a different language) that individual should complete Part 8. Make additional copies of Part 8 for each family member to sign, as applicable, and include the pages with your completed Form I-912. USCIS will reject any Form I-912 that is not signed by all individuals requesting a fee waiver.

Item Numbers 1. - 6. Select the appropriate box to indicate whether you, the family member, read this request yourself or whether you had an interpreter assist you. If someone assisted you in completing the request, select the box indicating that you used a preparer. Further, you must sign and date your request and provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every request MUST contain the signature of the requestor (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 9. Interpreter's Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

NOTE for Family Members: If you used a different interpreter than the one used by the requestor, make additional copies of Part 9, provide the following information, and include the pages with your completed Form I-912.

Item Numbers 1. - 9. If you used anyone as an interpreter to read the Instructions and questions on this request to you in a language in which you are fluent, the interpreter must fill out this section, provide his or her name, the name and address of his or her business or organization (if any), his or her daytime telephone number, his or her mobile telephone number (if any), and his or her email address (if any). The interpreter must sign and date the request.

Part 10. Contact Information, Declaration, and Signature of the Person Preparing this Request, if Other Than the Requestor

NOTE for Family Members: If you used a different preparer than the one used by the requestor, make additional copies of Part 10, provide the following information, and include the pages with your completed Form I-912.

Item Numbers 1. - 10. This section must contain the signature of the person who completed your request, if other than you, the requestor. If the same individual acted as your interpreter and your preparer, that person should complete both Part 9 and Part 10. If the person who completed this request is associated with a business or organization, that person should complete the business or organization name and address information. Anyone who helped you complete this request MUST sign and date the request. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable. If the person who helped you prepare your request is an attorney or accredited representative, he or she may be obliged to also submit a completed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, or Form G-28I, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney In Matters Outside the Geographic Confines of the United States, along with your request.

Part 11. Additional Information

Item Numbers 1. - 6. If you need extra space to provide any additional information within this request, use the space provided in Part 11. Additional Information. If you need more space than what is provided in Part 11., you may make copies of Part 11. to complete and file with your request, or attach a separate sheet of paper. Include your name and A-Number (if any) at the top of each sheet and indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers.

We recommend that you print or save a copy of your completed request to review in the future and for your records.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no filing fee for Form I-912.

Where To File?

Mail your Form I-912, along with the completed USCIS applications or petitions, and all supporting documentation according to the Where to File section in the Instructions of the application or petitions for which you are requesting a fee waiver.

Processing Information

Decision. The decision on Form I-912 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the fee waiver. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing. If USCIS denies your fee waiver request, the notice will include information on resubmitting your application or petition. For certain immigration benefits, you may have only a limited period of time in which to resubmit your application or petition with the proper filing fee. Please review the Instructions for the application or petition for which you want USCIS to consider a fee waiver to determine when to refile.

Penalties

If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-912, USCIS will deny your fee waiver request and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you may face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

USCIS Privacy Act Statement

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this request, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 286, and 8 CFR 103.7(c).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this request is to determine if you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit for which you are filing. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will use the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision in your case or result in denial of your request and rejection of your application or petition based on non-payment of the filing fee.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this request with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS-USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System and DHS-USCIS-001 - Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.
