Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery and involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to exploit men, women or children and subject them into some type of labor or commercial sex act. Any minor exploited for commercial sex is a victim of human trafficking, even if not induced by force, fraud, or coercion.

Trafficking victims can be any age, race, gender, or nationality. Victims can find themselves in a foreign country and may not speak the language.

Report human trafficking to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Tip line at 1-866-347-2423 or on line at www.ice.gov/tips. The HSI Tip line is available 24/7 with language capability in over 300 languages and dialects. To reach a non-governmental organization, available 24/7 with language capability in over 170 languages, please call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center at 1-888-3737-888.

If you suspect that a person may be a victim of human trafficking, please call the HSI Tip line at 1-866-347-2423 or online at www.ice.gov/tips. If calling from outside the United States, please call the non-toll free world-wide number of 802-872-6199.
