HEADQUARTERS EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY OFFICE INFORMATION PACKET

HOW TO FILE AN EEO COMPLAINT

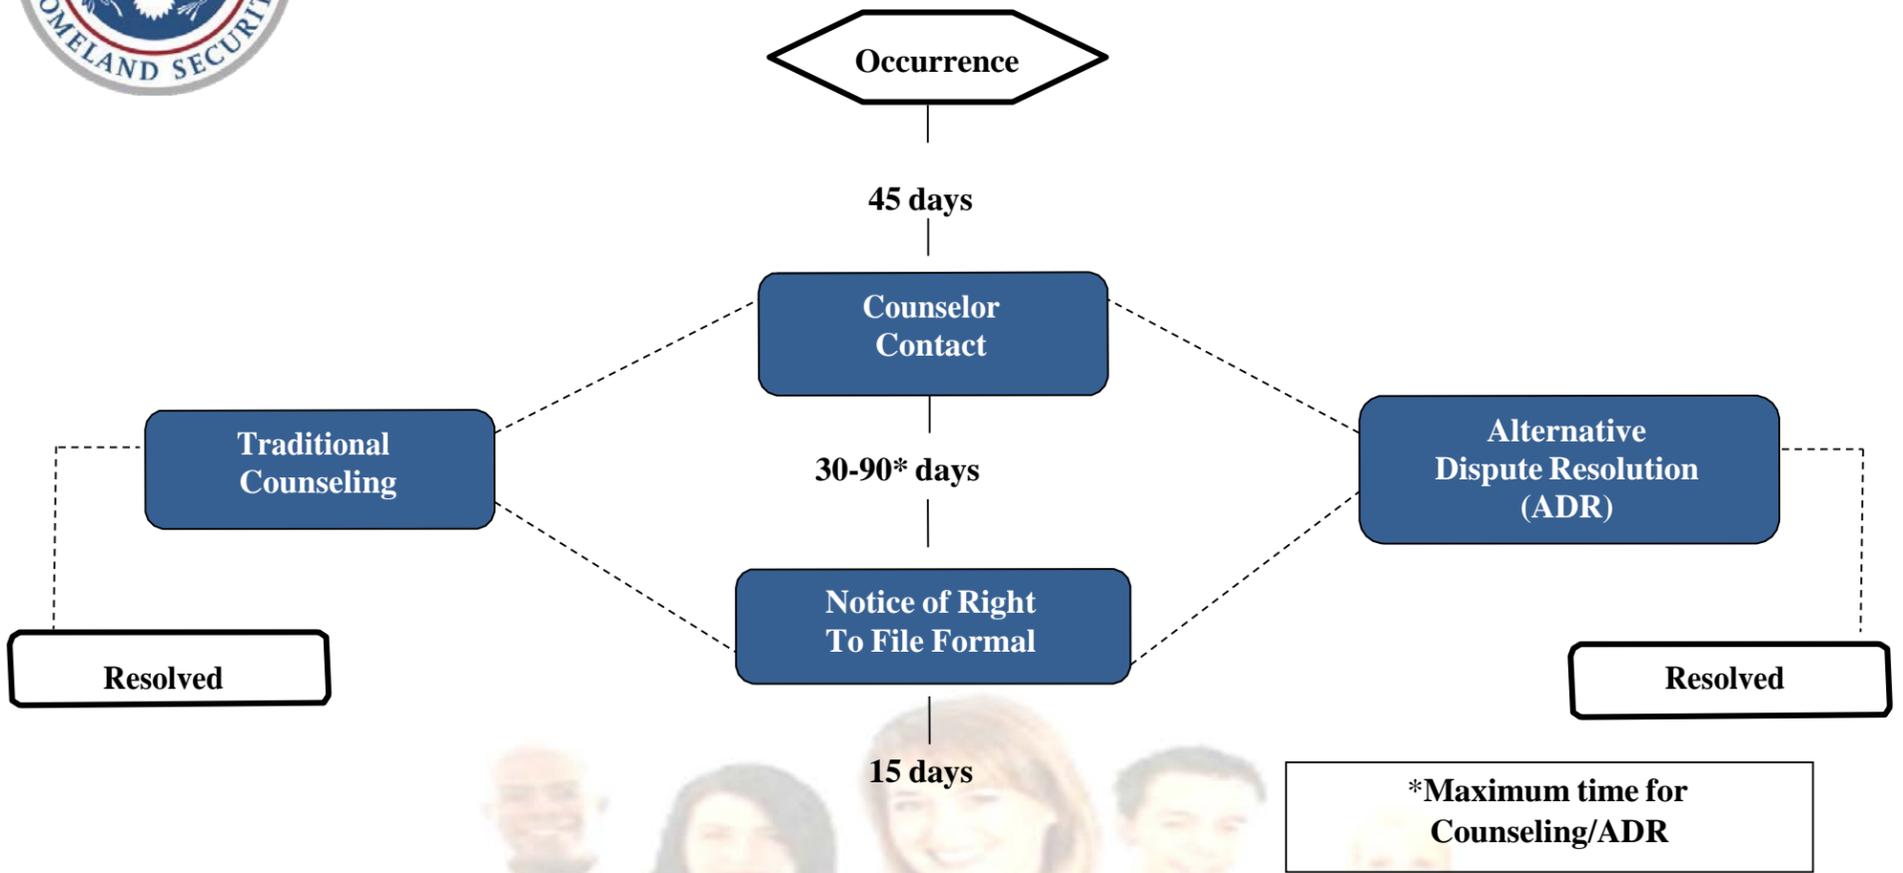

- The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is an equal opportunity employer. If you are an employee or applicant for employment and feel that you have been discriminated against, you may have the right to file a complaint of discrimination with the Department.
- Complaints can be filed on the bases of: race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, disability, protected genetic information, or reprisal. Complaints of discrimination based on sexual orientation or parental status, although not covered by the laws prohibiting discrimination, may be filed and will be handled under special Department procedures.
- If you believe that you have been subjected to unlawful discrimination, you MUST contact an EEO counselor within 45 days of the alleged discriminatory activity to preserve your rights. If you are not aware of whom the EEO counselors are, you should contact the DHS Headquarters EEO Office at hqeeo@hq.dhs.gov or (202) 357-7700.
- The role of the EEO counselor is to resolve disputes between aggrieved persons and management. The counselor is a neutral participant in this process, and is not an advocate for either side. The counselor will inquire into the facts and circumstances and attempt to find a resolution that is satisfactory to both parties.
- The counseling process should not exceed 30 days; however, you may agree to extend counseling for up to an additional 60 days. If no resolution is achieved during that time, the counselor will provide you with a Notice of Right to File a Discrimination Complaint. The formal complaint MUST be filed with the appropriate office within 15 days of receipt of that notice with the appropriate office. The address of the office to which you should send your formal complaint will be indicated on the Notice of Right to File, and a complaint form will be provided by the counselor.
- Once a formal complaint has been filed, an investigation may be conducted. Upon completion of the investigation, you may be entitled to:
 - a hearing before an Equal Employment Opportunity Commission administrative judge, or
 - a Final Agency Decision by the DHS Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties.

If you believe you have been discriminated against and wish to pursue the EEO process, you are entitled to seek EEO counseling and should contact the DHS Headquarters Office at hqeeo@hq.dhs.gov or 202-357-7700.

ANTI-HARASSMENT UNIT (AHU)

Pursuant to the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Anti-Harassment Directive 256-01, it is Department's policy to maintain a work environment free from harassment.

All DHS employees are responsible for keeping their workplace free from prohibited discrimination and harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, political affiliation, or retaliation. All DHS employees are expected to avoid any behavior or conduct that could reasonably be considered as harassment. No employee is exempt from these requirements.

Examples of prohibited behavior include:

- Sexual, racial, or ethnic jokes, epithets, or stereotyping
- Suggestive or lewd remarks
- Offensive email, instant messages, texts, or social media posts
- Other unwelcome conduct based on an individual's protected status (listed above).

REPORTING PROCEDURES

Supervisors and managers are required to take prompt, effective and corrective action upon being notified of an allegation of harassment. Any person who believes they have been subjected to or witnessed harassment that violates this policy may report the matter promptly to a first or second-line supervisor, another management official, the Anti-Harassment Unit (AHU), or the DHS-Headquarters Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Office.

All allegations of harassment filed with the AHU are investigated by a neutral fact-finder, and prompt corrective action is taken when warranted.

If you are not contacted by a fact-finder within five business days of filing a complaint with the AHU, contact Nicole Swann, Director of Alternative Dispute Resolution and Anti-Harassment Programs, at Nicole.Swann@hq.dhs.gov.

EEO COMPLAINTS

The AHU process is separate from the EEO complaint process. Filing a complaint with the AHU does not affect an employee's right to file an EEO complaint of harassment or discrimination.

If an employee wishes to raise an allegation of harassment through the EEO complaint process, the matter must be raised with the EEO office within 45 calendar days of the alleged harassment or discrimination.

RETALIATION

DHS does not tolerate retaliation against any individual for reporting harassment or assisting another individual in reporting harassment, for providing information related to such a report, for filing an EEO complaint, or for opposing conduct that they believe is unlawfully discriminatory or harassing.
