On this morning, my direct supervisor, Mr. (b)(6) arrived in the office earlier than usual as it was my last day in the office prior to going on a detail. When I entered Mr. (b)(6) office to deliver his daily binder to him he requested that I share my Outlook calendar with him. On my third request to exit and when he saw I was beginning to get emotional he stepped aside and opened the door but followed me into the hallway. I again repeated my discomfort and he finally walked away. I believe the nature of the incident would be detention. | 6/10/2020 |
