

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

NATIONAL CHEMICAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

CHARTER

1. Committee's Official Designation:

National Chemical Transportation Safety Advisory Committee.

2. Authority:

The National Chemical Transportation Safety Advisory Committee (Committee) was established on December 4, 2018, by § 601 of the Frank LoBiondo Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2018 (Public Law 115-282, 132 Stat. 4192). That statutory authority is codified in 46 U.S.C. § 15101. The Committee operates under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C., Appendix) in addition to the provisions applicable to all National Maritime Transportation Advisory Committees in 46 U.S.C. § 15109.

3. Objectives and Scope of Activities:

The function of the Committee is to advise the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security on matters relating to the safe and secure marine transportation of hazardous materials.

The Committee will submit, in writing, to the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security its advice, reports, and recommendations, in a form and at a frequency determined appropriate by the Committee.

4. Description of Duties:

The duties of the Committee are solely advisory in nature.

5. Officials to Whom the Committee Reports:

The Committee provides advice and recommendations to the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security through the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard and the Director of Commercial Regulations and Standards.

6. Agency Responsible for Providing Necessary Support:

The Department of Homeland Security is responsible for providing financial and administrative support to the Committee. Within the Department of Homeland Security, the Coast Guard's Hazardous Materials Division (CG-ENG-5), provides this support.

7. Estimated Annual Operating Costs and Staff Years:

The estimated annual operating cost of the National Chemical Transportation Safety Advisory Committee is $40,000, which includes 0.30 staff years of support.

8. Designated Federal Officer:

A full-time employee of the United States Coast Guard is appointed by the Director of Commercial Regulations and Standards as the Committee Designated Federal Officer. The Designated Federal Officer or the Alternate Designated Federal Officer approves or calls Committee meetings, approves meeting agendas, and attends all Committee and subcommittee meetings. The Designated Federal Officer adjourns any meeting when he/she determines adjournment to be in the public interest and chairs meetings in the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

9. Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings:

It is expected the Committee will meet at least once per calendar year. Meetings are held at the call of the Secretary or a majority of the members of the Committee, subject to the approval of the Designated Federal Officer who will make arrangement for the meeting, including publishing a timely notice in the Federal Register. Members will not be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, including travel and per diem. But all government travel must be approved in advance by the Designated Federal Officer. Committee meetings are open to the public unless a determination is made by the appropriate Department of Homeland Security official in accordance with Department of Homeland Security policy and directives that the meeting should be closed in accordance with the Government in the Sunshine Act (Sunshine Act) 5 U.S.C § 552 b(c).

10. Duration:

Under § 601 of the Frank LoBiondo Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2018, the Committee is authorized to continue until September 30, 2027.

11. Effective Period for this Charter:

This charter is effective from the date it is filed with Congress until it is replaced by a newly filed charter. Section 14(b) (2) of Federal Advisory Committee Act directs that a charter for a Committee such as this one, which was established by an Act of Congress, be filed each successive 2-year period. No charter for this Committee may be effective after September 30, 2027, unless that statutory termination date for this Committee is extended by an Act of Congress.

12. Member Composition and Election of Officers:

The Committee shall consist of not more than 25 members appointed by the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. Each member of the Committee shall have particular expertise, knowledge, and experience in matters relating to the function of the Committee. Each member of the Committee shall represent one of the following:

- (A) Chemical manufacturing entities
- (B) Entities related to marine handling or transportation of chemicals
- (C) Vessel design and construction entities
- (D) Marine safety or security entities
- (E) Marine environmental protection entities

In accordance with 46 U.S.C. § 15101(c)(3), the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security will, based on the needs of the Coast Guard, determine the number of members of the committee who represent each entity specified above. As stated in the statute, an equal distribution of members representing each entity specified above is not required. Following the procedures in 46 U.S.C. § 15109, the Secretary will appoint persons in a manner that ensures diverse representation of the aforementioned subject matter.

In accordance with 46 U.S.C. § 15109 (f)(2)(B), the Secretary shall not seek, consider, or otherwise use information concerning the political affiliation of a nominee in making an appointment to the committee.

The members are representatives of their respective industries and are not Special Governmental Employees as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 202(a).

Any Federal agency with matters under the agency's administrative jurisdiction related to the function of the Committee may designate a representative to attend any Committee meetings, and that representative may participate as an observer at meetings at which such matters are discussed.

The term of each Committee member will expire on December 31 of the third full year after the effective date of his or her appointment. Each member serves at the pleasure of the Secretary. The Secretary may reappoint a member of the Committee for any term, other than the first term of the member without soliciting, receiving, or considering nominations for such appointment. When the term of a member ends and a successor has not been appointed, he or she may continue to serve as a member for up to one additional year, until a successor is appointed. In the event the Committee terminates, all appointments to the Committee will terminate.

Officers:

The Committee will elect a Chairman and Vice-Chairman from among the Committee's members. The Vice-Chairman will act as Chairman in the absence or incapacity of the Chairman or in the event of a vacancy in the office of the Chairman. The term of office of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman may be up to two years, and Officers may serve more than one term. A person may serve as Chairman or Vice-Chairman only if that person is also serving as a member of the Committee.

13. Subcommittees:

The Chairman may establish and disestablish subcommittees and working groups for any purpose consistent with the function of the Committee. Such subcommittees and working groups may not work independently of the chartered Committee and must present their work to the Committee for full deliberation and discussion. Subcommittees have no authority to make decisions on behalf of the Committee and may not report directly to the Federal Government or any other entity.

14. Recordkeeping:

The records of the Committee, formally and informally established subcommittees or other subgroups of the Committee, are handled in accordance with General Records Schedule 6.2 or other approved agency records disposition schedule. These records will be available for public inspection and copying in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552).
