2018-HQFO-01483	Tan, Michael	1.The purpose and scope of the reports required by Section 11 of the Executive Order, and the rationale for including the information covered therein; 2. The data forming the basis for the reports. This means a copy of the original electronic data in their original format, or any spreadsheet format (such as .xis, .csv, or another standard electronic format), with a row in the spreadsheet for each act or offense, and columns including each piece of requested information. Note that one individual may have more than one act or offense, and therefore may have more than one row in the spreadsheet. The agency may redact individuals' names and Alien numbers for privacy, but should preserve the structure of the data and the ability to track individuals' cases. This can be accomplished by including columns with unique identifiers that correspond to the names and Alien numbers of the noncitizens, allowing the data to be analyzed at the individual level without revealing the identity of the noncitizens; 3. The methods and procedures for identifying, tracking, analyzing, verifying, and reporting the data identified by Section 11 of the Executive Order; 4. The methods and procedures for ensuring the accuracy of the reports and their underlying data; 5. The dissemination of the reports to government officials, the news media, and the general public; 6. information about acts of violence or terrorism by noncitizens, this includes all analogous information about such acts by U.S. citizens. If such information has not been gathered, this request includes a request for all documents related to the decision not to gather that information; 7. look-up tables, glossaries, indexes, or other records defining the terms, abbreviations, and entries used in the reports or data that forms the basis for the reports; 8. records related to the "more than 300 persons who entered the United States as refugees [ and who are] the subjects of counterterrorism investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation" referenced in Executive Order, Section I(h)	9/18/2018
