Regarding the FIOA, here is the only correspondence that I have had with Steve Slepcevic. If I'm in tomorrow, I can print it out for you.

I served on a panel with him as well, but he did not sponsor or host this activity. It was a conference call hosted by Biz Summits and we were just speakers.

thanks,
Becky

Hi Steve,

Unfortunately I don't have much of a travel budget. I have copied [REDACTED] from DHS' private sector office and [REDACTED] from FEMA's private sector office hoping they might be able to assist.

Thanks,
Becky

Rebecca,

I'm looking for a speaker from DHS to be a part of the Disaster Preparedness Summit which educates businesses on what they need to follow in order to stay compliant. Do you have a speaker that would be willing to speak at all our events through out the US. We attract approximately 200 medium to large businesses representatives at each of our events. You can view a list at www.disastersummit.org Please let me know as I feel it would be very beneficial. We also give out your informational materials and the materials from the Red Cross to all attendees.

Thanks again,
