However, if they have abandoned their lawful permanent resident status they can no longer be considered as being eligible to naturalize. Your figures appear to include only those who are eligible to naturalize. In fact, the 2002 figure specifically states that it represents the ¿Population eligible to naturalize in 2002.¿ Can you clarify your explanation?  Committee: JUDICIARY (HOUSE)  Hearing Date: 05/16/2007  Witness(es): Michael Hoefer  Director of the Office of Immigration Statistics (OIS) Roles: The Honorable Steve King(Primary, No Role)

QFR Set Number: Q000006 Committee Question Number: 47 Topic: Project Athena and SBInet Question: Project Athena is a surveillance and reconnaissance system that has been successfully developed and tested to provide maritime domain awareness. Eight Great Lakes States pooled their resources to acquire the Athena technology and strengthen the security of Great Lakes ports and along the Northern border. The Department of Homeland Security has denied requests to use grant funds to support the use of Project Athena, stating that SBInet technologies will be forthcoming.  If proven technology exists and is in place today, why is the Department not supporting its use? Why is the Department waiting for new and untested SBInet technologies to be deployed, which may take years?

	In recent years, the Department has encouraged States and localities to take a more regional approach to preparing for and responding to terrorist events or natural disasters. In responding to questions about the Western Hemisphere Travel initiative Director Williams suggested that DHS Security is working on a one-day pass for individuals who reach a land border-crossing without the proper documentation required under WHTI. Our constituents look at Canada as neighbor to the north, new documentation requirement could result in an annual loss of 3.5 million trips by Canadians to the US with an estimated tourism loss of $667 million per year. QFR Set Number: L02763  Committee Question Number: L02782  Question: On March 9, 2005, the Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight, which I chair, held a hearing on the organizational structure of the Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). What we learned from the testimony of former Department officials is that instead of fostering coordination and cooperation, the current structure has actually created ?bureaucratic walls? between the two agencies -- CBP and ICE. Previously, border inspectors or Border Patrol agents worked hand-in-glove with Immigration and Customs investigators. But, under the current structure, there are separate chains-of-command which do not always result in the same level of cooperation as occurred in the past. Your proposal specifically does not merge these two agencies. Instead, both agencies will report directly to you. 1. Q02782: Why did you decide not to merge these two agencies?  Committee: HHSC  Hearing Date: 7/14/2005  Witness(es): CHERTOFF  Comments: Notes: JTR 4-18-06  Status: Cleared by DHS &amp; OMB  Roles: The Honorable Michael Rogers(Primary, Questioner)

	QFR Set Number: L02763  Committee Question Number: L02776  Question: Border Security -- Contract Management Mr. Secretary, you have proposed six focus areas for the Department. One of these areas is to strengthen border security. On June 16, 2005, the Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight, which I chair, held a hearing on the Remote Video Surveillance Program. The contract for this program was managed by the Border Patrol and the General Services Administration. The initial award was for $2 million, but one year later, the contract ballooned to over $200 million without evidence of an open competition. In December 2004, the Inspector General of the General Services Administration issued an audit, which found numerous problems with the contract. The contract violated Federal contracting rules and wasted millions of taxpayer dollars. The General Services Administration abruptly halted extending the contract, leaving many border sites without cameras and other surveillance equipment. Later this year, the Department of Homeland Security plans to roll out the new ?America?s Shield Initiative,? which is estimated to cost $2.5 billion. This Initiative will expand and replace the Remote Video Surveillance Program. 1. Per my vm regarding a Cover Letter to a report to the Hill on DHS real property locations. I am enclosing the Draft Cover Letter, and Workflow notes. Please see page 4 note 4 of the attached Workflow Notes.

Per the Workflow note 4, General Counsel recommended that your office review the language. If it is acceptable to your office we will send it out, if not, please advise of your recommended changes that may be necessary to justify disclosure protection of our real property data. (The letter is a replication of a similar data request from the Hill to GSA-with language modified to reflect DHS as the sender.)

QFR Set Number: L02763  Committee Question Number: L02779  Question: On April 14, 2005, the Subcommittee on Management, Integration, and Oversight, which I chair, held a hearing on the problems with the Department of Homeland Security's current Information Security program. The Office of Management and Budget submitted a report to Congress on March 1, 2005, on how well Federal agencies are doing in complying with the Federal Information Security Management Act of 2002. Based on this report, the Department of Homeland Security received a grade of 'F' on the Federal Computer Security Report Card. Just this past Monday, July 11th, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report that concluded that the Department of Homeland Security has yet to fully and effectively implement a comprehensive, department-wide information security program. This is needed to protect the information and information systems that support the Department's operations and assets. 1. What studies have been done to analyze the potential damage and consequences of an RDD attack? How does DHS distinguish its mission and R&amp;D program on RDDs from that of DoE, DTRA, the military services and the FBI? There was a problem with the Canadian bus drivers work permits, which caused a lengthy delay. The biggest concern was the members of the Border Patrol staff made no attempt to communicate with anyone and did not appear to be concerned with the delay. Asking to pursue an inquiry into this event and advise, the validity of such administrative delays should be questioned.  Attachments: 06-6641 wilson 6.13.06_2006-06-14_10-44-44_esliaison1.pdf, 534960.wilson_2006-06-29_16-51-22_cbpexsec.pdf  Roles: The Honorable Joe Wilson(Primary, Sender)

QFR Set Number: Q000006 Committee Question Number: 34 Topic: C-TPAT Question: The Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) is designated to receive $55.6 million, which after

	subtracting for salary inflation results in a program increase of $343,000. The SAFE Port Act directs several changes to be made in the current program, including a pilot for 3rd party validators, requiring validations be completed within one year of certification, 4-year revalidations, and minimum standards for each of the CTPAT tiers. How will such a slight program increase and no increase in FTEs enable the C- TPAT program to meet the SAFE Port Act mandates? Committee: HOMELAND SECURITY (HOUSE)  Hearing Date: 02/09/2007  Witness(es): Secretary Michael Chertoff  Component Head Clearance: Reviewed  Roles: The Honorable Peter T. QFR Set Number: Q000006  Committee Question Number: 35  Topic: CBP programs  Question: CBP also operates several border facilitation programs, including FAST, NEXUS (land, air, and maritime), and SENTRI. The FY08 budget proposes no increase for these programs and maintains a budget of $11.2 million. In FY08, according to supporting budget documents, CBP will enhance the Global Enrollment System, which links the processes and security checks for all of the trusted traveler programs, establish joint enrolment centers for FAST and NEXUS, and add iris scan equipment to all NEXUS and some FAST enrollment centers. The more robust these programs, the more people participate, and the more information we have on border crossers. It is very concerning that DHS has dedicated little funding to improving and increasing these programs for the past several years. Do you see security value in these programs? Do you see facilitation value in these programs? Given the requirements that DHS enforce secure document requirements for all travelers crossing the border by June 2009 at the latest, don't you think that a push to increase membership in these trusted traveler programs would make the transition under the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative (WHTI) easier? Committee: HOMELAND SECURITY (HOUSE)  Hearing Date: 02/09/2007  Witness(es): Secretary Michael Chertoff  Component Head Clearance: Reviewed  Roles: The Honorable Peter T. QFR Set Number: Q000013  Committee Question Number: 4  Topic: Secure Fence Act  Question: Last October, President Bush signed the Secure Fence Act into law. This legislation calls for approximately 700 miles of fencing along the border to serve as a deterrent and apprehension tool. According to the budget information provided to Congress, between fiscal year 2007 and 2008, 370 additional miles of fencing will be constructed. While it falls short of where we need to be, I do think that it is an improvement from the amount of fencing currently on the border, which is only about 100 miles. Can you clarify how many of the 370 miles of fencing is planned to be constructed in each of the fiscal years? Do you know how much funding will be dedicated to the fence projects in each year? For example, in FY08, the budget proposes $712.8 million for tactical infrastructure under SBInet. How much of that funding is anticipated for fencing?

	Are there plans in addition to the 370 miles of fencing to place vehicle barriers along the border, and if so, how many barriers are planned? Committee: HOMELAND SECURITY (HOUSE)  Hearing Date: 02/15/2007  Witness(es): The Honorable Michael P. According to the AP, you eventually changed your mind and the Committee approved the deal without dissent after Dubai Ports World agreed to the security conditions that CFIUS negotiated. ? QFR Set Number: Q000091  Committee Question Number: 1  Topic: Road Home Program  Question: In your testimony you discuss the Louisiana homeowner grants program, aka The Road Home Program and its potential multi-billion dollar budget shortfall. Recently (July 28) I read with interest an article in the New Orleans Times Picayune (NOTP) by David Hammer that outlined the program as well. Do you agree with the overall content of that article? In your opinion, is the New Orleans Times Picayune considered the "paper of record" for Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans?

QFR Set Number: L3  Committee Question Number: L95136  Topic: Immigration/Immigration (DHS IG report)  Question: A news report earlier this month quoted the former DHS Inspector General as saying that DHS is still a ?compilation of 22 agencies that are not integrated into a cohesive whole.? He cited a report from his IG office that found that DHS immigration inspectors had continued to let dozens of people, using stolen foreign passports, into the US ? even after other governments had notified the agency of the stolen passport numbers.
