Milestone Date	Major Milestone:
December 2012	DHS Planned Milestones for December 31, 2012 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Establish and coordinate strategic placement of permanent PIV Card Issuance Facilities (PCIFs) throughout the United States • Establish light activation capabilities at selected DHS facilities within the NCR
December 2011	DHS Planned Milestones for December 31, 2011 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Issuing PIV credentials to all new DHS federal employees and qualified contractors as part of the on boarding process • Manage DHS PIV Card Issuance Services to the Components at potentially 16,000 sites • Implement business processes to ensure cost-effective defined requirements for identity support services are managed as a Department strategy
December 2010	DHS Planned Milestones for December 31, 2010 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete integration of PIV credentials with logical access systems • Complete integration of PIV credentials with physical access systems • Issuing PIV credentials to all of DHS Components - Federal Employees and qualified Contract Personnel • Adjudication or verification of background investigations (NACIs) for current Federal Employees and Contractors

Current employee, contractor, and other individual's numbers do not include US Coast Guard (USCG), as USCG will primarily be utilizing the DoD CAC card.

Contractor and other individuals' numbers represent an estimate of total number of contractors and other individuals based on estimates provided by Components.

* The total number of PIV credentials issued has been adjusted to show the number of cards issued to eligible personnel. Previously, the statistics reports the number of PIV compliant issued. The difference in reported numbers from previous cycles to present, represent those cases where an individual has been issued card updates such as expiration, name changes, lost and/or stolen, FERRO designation, etc.

 Number of Employees, Contractors, and other individuals has been adjusted to show the number of completed/adjudicated NACI (or equivalent background investigation)
