Privacy Office Workshop Series

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security Privacy Office cordially invites you to attend a public workshop:

“CCTV: Developing Privacy Best Practices”

December 17-18, 2007

Hilton Arlington (Ballston Metro stop)
Gallery Ballroom
950 North Stafford Street
Arlington, VA 22203

This workshop will provide a forum to begin the discussion of best practices for the use of CCTV by government agencies. The workshop will explore how CCTV technology can be used in a manner that respects the privacy and civil liberties of the American public. Development of best practices for the use of this technology will aid in building public trust that privacy and civil liberties will be considered when making decisions to use CCTV.

Attendees may RSVP to PrivacyWorkshop@dhs.gov or call 703.235.0780

Registration is recommended, but not required. Persons with disabilities requiring special assistance should indicate their need for assistance in their registration and are encouraged to identify special needs as soon as possible.

Additional information about the workshop will be posted on the workshop’s website, which will be accessible through www.dhs.gov/privacy.
A transcript of the workshop will be posted following the event.
